DOCUMENT RESUME

ED 318 438 IR 014 345

TITLE Bibliography: Selection Sources. Building Library Media Collections.
INSTITUTION Maryland State Dept. of Education, Baltimore.
PUB DATE Dec 88
NOTE 80p.; For a related report, see IR 014 346.
PUB TYPE Reference Materials - Bibliographies (131)

EDRS PRICE MF01/PC04 Plus Postage.
DESCRIPTORS Annotated Bibliographies; Elementary Secondary Education; Learning Resources Centers; *Library Collection Development; *Library Material Selection; Media Specialists; *School Libraries
IDENTIFIERS *Selection Tools

ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography of library media collection selection sources includes: (1) an annotated bibliography of selection sources; (2) a list of selection tools (in both book and periodical form) for elementary, middle, and secondary schools; (3) a list of bibliographies in specialized subject areas (art; career planning; computers; early childhood education; gifted education; coping, death, divorce, and drugs; health, physical education, safety, and sports; language arts; mathematics; media centers; multicultural issues; music; reference sources; science; sex equity/women; social studies; and special populations); and (4) an alphabetical directory of publishers, including addresses. (GL)

****
* Reproductions supplied by EDRS are the best that can be made *
* from the original document. *
****

BUILDING LIBRARY MEDIA

COLLECTIONS

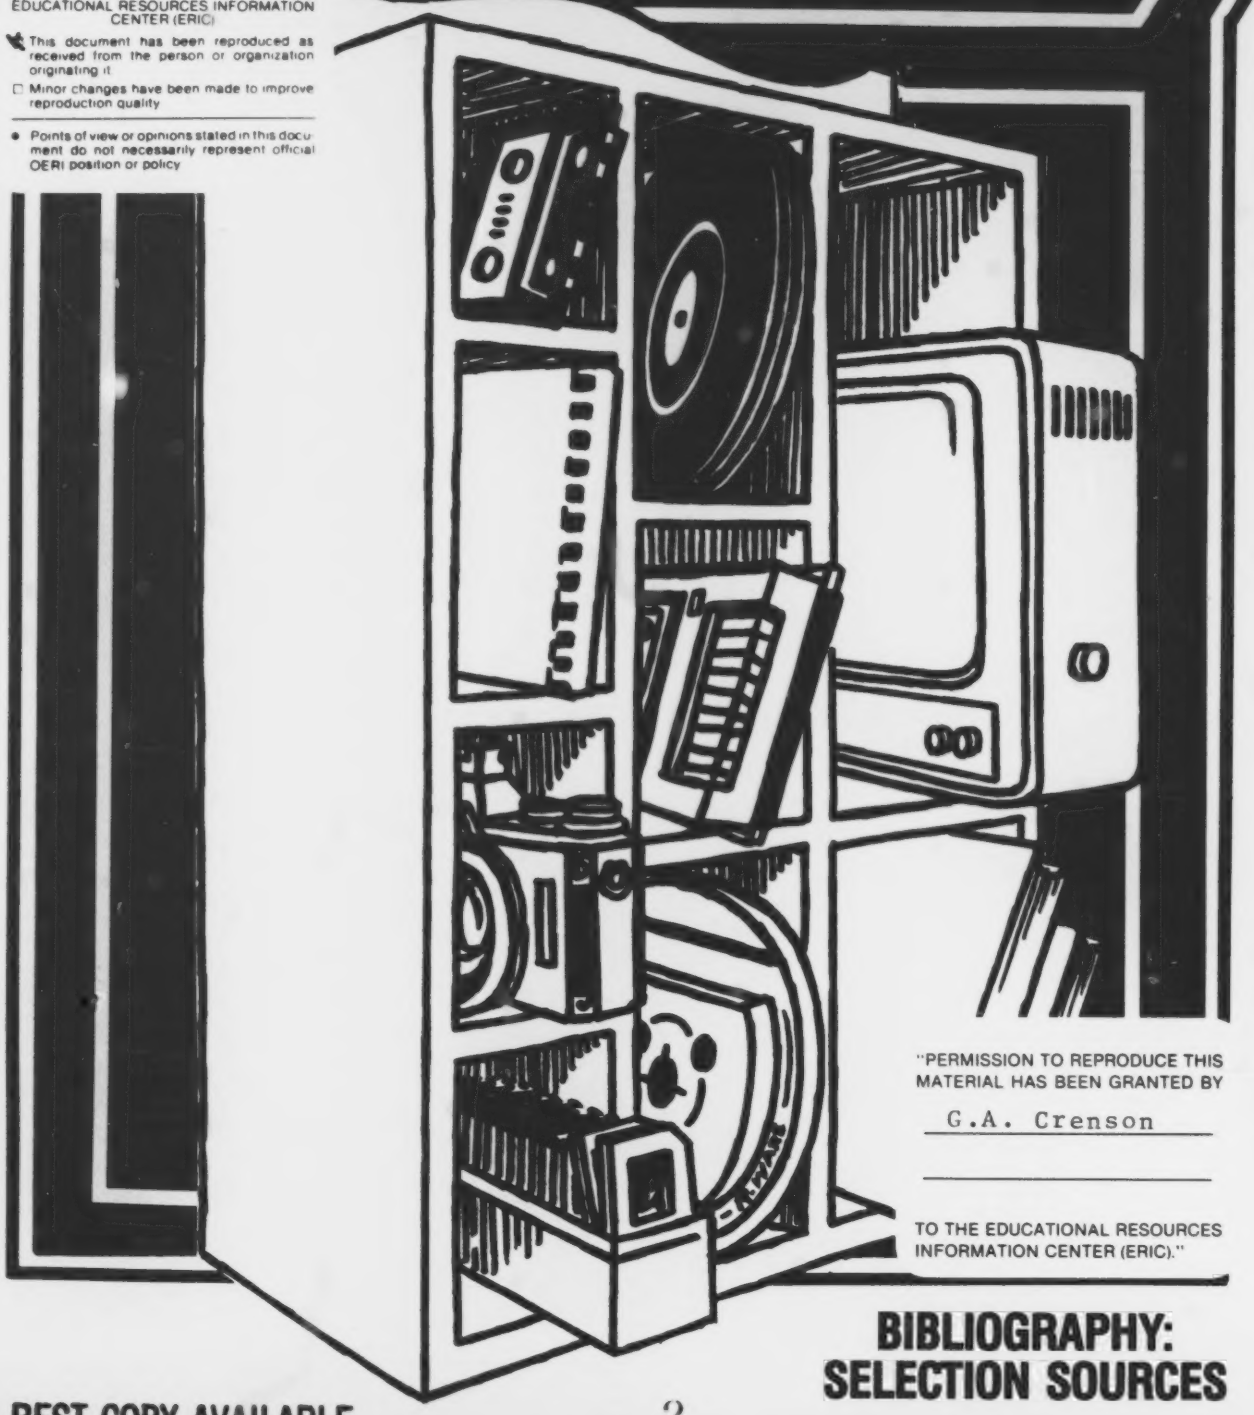
ED318438

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Office of Educational Research and Improvement
EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES INFORMATION CENTER (ERIC)

This document has been reproduced as received from the person or organization originating it.

☐ Minor changes have been made to improve reproduction quality.

• Points of view or opinions stated in this document do not necessarily represent official OERI position or policy.



"PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE THIS MATERIAL HAS BEEN GRANTED BY

G.A. Crenson

TO THE EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES INFORMATION CENTER (ERIC)."

BIBLIOGRAPHY: SELECTION SOURCES

IR 014 345

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

Members of the Maryland State Board of Education

President

Lawrence A. Shulman	Rockville	1989

Vice President

Wilson H. Parran	Huntingtown	1991
May B. Bolt	Frostburg	1989
Herbert Fincher	Salisbury	1993
Priscilla Hilliard	Upper Marlboro	1990
Rosetta G. Kerr	Baltimore	1991
Joan C. Maynard	Linthicum	1992
Frederick K. Schoenbrodt	Ellicott City	1990
Benjamin Swinson	Silver Spring	1992
Shirley Leung (Student Member)	Bel Air	1989

Secretary-Treasurer of the Board
State Superintendent of Schools
Joseph L. Shilling

Deputy State Superintendent of Schools
Claud E. Kitchens

Acting Assistant State Superintendent for Libraries
J. Maurice Travillian

Chief, School Library Media Services
Rosa L. Presberry

Mailing Address:
Maryland State Department of Education
200 West Baltimore Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201-2595

Statement of Nondiscrimination

The Maryland State Department of Education does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion, or handicapping condition in matters affecting employment or in providing access to programs. For inquiries related to departmental policy, contact the Equal Opportunity Office.

Bibliography: Selection Sources

AAAS Science Book List Supplement 1978–1986. Washington, DC: American Association for the Advancement of Science, 1986. 568 p. $25.00.

This new volume provides complete evaluations of some 2,100 science books for junior and senior high school students, teachers, and general audiences. Titles are grouped according to the Dewey Classification System and are indexed by subject, author, and title.

A to Zoo: Subject Access to Children's Picture Books, 2nd ed. Carolyn W. Lima, ed. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 706p. $39.95. (0-8352-2134-2)

This is a subject-arranged guide to some 5,000 picture books for preschool through second grade children, catalogued under 543 subjects. Titles are listed alphabetically by author within each subject heading and bibliographic information is included.

Accept Me As I Am: Best Books of Juvenile Nonfiction on Impairments and Disabilities. Joan B. Friedberg et al. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 378p. $27.50. (0-8352-1974-7)

The recommendations in this guide cover four categories of disability: Physical, Sensory, Cognitive and Behavioral and Multiple/Severe. The guide discusses bibliographies, autobiographies, and informational children's and young adult nonfiction. Each title is listed with complete bibliographic information, recommended grade level, a notation of the disability/impairment discussed, and critical and descriptive annotations. Subject, author, and title indexes are included.

The Access Collection of 16mm Classics: 100 Short Films about the Human Environment. William R. Ewald. Santa Barbara, CA: ABC CLIO, 1982. 157p. $16.26.

This guide identifies short films on environment for high schools, colleges, and communities.

Access to Media: A Guide to Integrating and Computerizing Catalogs. Sheila S. Intner. New York: Neal-Schuman Publishers, 1984. 301p. $35.00. (0-918212-88-X)

This handbook is divided into two sections. Part I provides an overview of the growth of media collections, the methods developed to catalog them, and the associated problems. Part II explains the role of planning for the inclusion of media in the library's automated catalog and the training of staff necessary to accomplish this.

Administering the School Library Media Center. John T. Gillespie and Diana L. Spirt. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1983. 381p. $34.95. (0-8352-1514-8)

This guide provides principles and practices for creating, organizing, and managing a school library media center. It explores such practical considerations as developing a program within budget; selection, acquisition, and organization of materials; and computers in the media center.

Adventuring with Books: A Booklist for Pre-K-Grade 6. Dianna L. Monson. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1985. 395p. $7.75. (0-0767-016)

This list provides annotations to 1,700 books categorized by subjects with age levels provided for each item.

The Afro-American in Books for Children: Including Books about Africa and the West Indies, A Selected List. Washington, DC: District of Columbia Public Library, Children's Service, 1985. 97p. $2.00.

This bibliography covers books published through 1985 and is arranged by broad categories and indexed by author and title.

The Aging Adult in Children's Books and Nonprint Media: An Annotated Bibliography. Catherine T. Horner. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1982. 266p. $15.00. (0-8108-1475-7)

This bibliography annotates over 600 books and nonprint items on aging for preschool through high school.

Aids to Media Selection for Students and Teachers. Yvonne B. Carter and Barbara Spriesterbach. McFarland, WI: National Association of State Educational Media Professionals, 1985. 158p. $6.00. (0-9614484-0-7)

This is an annotated list of journals and bibliographies published since 1982 that review print, media, and software for elementary and secondary schools.

Alan Review. Mary Sucher, ed. Assembly on Literature for Adolescents. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English. 3 issues/yr. $5.00/yr.

This periodical provides articles related to poor readers and short reviews, notices, and descriptions of appropriate materials.

Alcohol and the Family. Grace M. Barnes and Diane K. Augustino, comps. Westport, CT: Greenwood Press, 1987. 461p. $49.95 (0-313-24782-X)

This guide lists over 6,000 articles and books on the effect alcohol use and abuse has on family members. An alphabetically arranged, subject index provides access through several hundred headings.

Alphabet: A Handbook of ABC Books and Activities for the Elementary Classroom. Patricia Roberts. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1984. 212p. $15.00. (0-8108-1686-5)

This handbook of activities is divided into three parts with supplemental material included in the third section.

Alphabet Books as a Key to Language Patterns: An Annotated Action Bibliography. Patricia Roberts. Hamden, CT: Shoe String Press, 1987. 250p. $27.50 (0-208-02151-5)

This book is divided by author into 12 categories of emphasis: accumulation, alliteration, letter-object-word arrangements, participation, progressive stories, repetition, rhymes and verses, word association, special faces and places, views of others, ways we see things, and wordless stories for creating patterns.

Alphabet Puppets: Songs, Stories and Craft Activities for Letter Recognition and Sounds. Jill Coudron. Belmont, CA: Pitman Learning, Inc., 1983. 122p. $7.95. (0-8224-0298-X)

The author describes activities for each letter of the alphabet. The activities include working with puppets, songs, and recipes.

Alternative Library Literature 1984/1985. Sanford Berman and James Danky. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1986. 255p. $35.00. (0-89950-234-2)

The guide provides 55 articles organized by headings such as "people," "work," "women," "nukes/peace," "censorship," "alternatives," "service/advocacy/empowerment," "kids," "audiovisual," "books and reading," and just for fun.

American Autobiography, 1945–1980: A Bibliography. Mary L. Briscoe, ed. Madison, WI: University of Wisconsin Press, 1982. 365p. $30.00. (0-2990-9090-6)

This bibliography lists over 5,000 American autobiographies.

American Ethnic Groups: A Guide to the Reference Sources. Lubomyr R. Wynar. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 350p. $27.50 (0065-9959-599-7)

This guide covers over 40 individual ethnic groups. Divided into two sections: (1) multidisciplinary reference works on ethnicity and ethnic groups: including bibliographies, encyclopedias, directories, guides and other relevant sources, including databases; and (2) reference and informational sources on individual ethnic groups. It includes author/title and subject indexes.

American Music Teacher. Cincinnati, OH: Music Teachers National Association, 6 issues/yr. $7.50//yr. (0003-0112)

This magazine reviews 300 musical pieces arranged for chorus, piano, voice, organ, woodwind, and strings; discusses theory and composition for audio recordings; and provides sheet music for choral and instruments.

American Reference Books Annual, Vol. 18. Bohdan S. Wynar et al. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 850p. $70.00. (0065-9959-595-4)

The 1,700 entries encompass the entire subject spectrum, covering such broad areas as general reference, history education, literature, urban studies, economics and business, and science and technology. The reviews describe both critical and evaluative of each reference and discuss the strengths and weaknesses in some detail.

Anatomy of Wonder: A Critical Guide to Science Fiction. Neil Barron. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 750p. $34.95. (0-8352-2312-4)

This guide provides concise plot synopses and evaluations of nearly 2,000 key science fiction titles.

Appleworks for School Librarians. May Lein Ho. Littleton, CO: Hi Willow Research and Publishing, 1986. 128p. $20.00. (0-931510-17-1) (Distributed by Libraries Unlimited)

A guide to a practical software program designed for a variety of administrative uses. This integrated program features a word processor, database, and spreadsheet. The book comes with a disk that includes a wide variety of templates or samples.

Appraisal: Science Books for Children. Children's Science Book Review Committee. Cambridge, MA: Boston University School of Education. 4 issues/yr. $16.00/yr.

Published four times a year, this magazine reviews current books in the field of science and technology for elementary and junior high grades. Each entry is reviewed by both a librarian and a science specialist. Recommendations are made for age levels, and ratings, from excellent to unsatisfactory are provided.

Arithmetic Teacher. Reston, VA: National Council of Teachers of Mathematics. 12 issues/yr. $12.00/yr. (0004-136X)

This publication evaluates filmstrips and films and provides book reviews coded for learning level.

Art and Design in Children's Picture Books: An Analysis of Caldecott Award-Winning Books. Lyn Ellen Lacy. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 246p. $19.95. (0-8389-0446-7)

This book explains the elements of art relevant to all types of images.

Art Books 1980–1984. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 571p. $65.00 (0-8352-1819-8)

This book lists 9,600 art books and serials published or distributed in the United States. It is arranged under 7,200 LC subject headings, it has author and title indexes, and lists 2,400 international periodicals and journals.

Art Education. Reston, VA: National Art Education, $50.00 to non-members.

This publication reviews media dealing with art education.

The Basic Collection of Children's Books in Spanish. Isabel Schon. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1987. 240p. $17.50 (0-8108-1904-X)

This edition lists 500 titles from preschool through sixth grade. The author has translated and annotated each title into English. The entries are grouped by reference works, nonfiction, publishers' series, fiction, easy books, and professional books. It is indexed by author, title, and subject and includes a listing of dealers of Spanish-language books.

Basic Language Skills Through Films: An Instructional Program for Secondary Students. Bruce McDonald et al. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 313p. $23.50. (0-87287-368-4)

The recommendations in this book describe 184 films that help teach reading comprehension, writing, and research skills in grades 7–12. It includes films from a wide range of subjects and minority groups.

Basic Library Skills, 2nd ed. Carolyn Wolf and Richard Wolf. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1986. 155p. $12.95. (0-89950-228-8)

This guide provides information on computer use and use of nonprint materials, database searches, and business and consumer information.

Basic Media Skills Through Games, Vol. I (2nd ed.). Irene Wood Bell and Jeanne E. Wieckert. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 389p. $28.50 (0-87287-438-9)

This volume describes games that can be used to develop media center skills. The games are arranged by title, skills category, method of checking, and type of game. A glossary of media center terms and an annotated bibliography of reference books used are included.

Basic Media Skills Through Games, Vol. II (2nd ed.). Irene Wood Bell and Jeanne E. Wieckert. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 386p. $23.50. (087287470-2)

Volume II provides more classroom games for developing media skills. The games are arranged by title, skills category, method of checking, and type of game. A glossary of media center terms and an annotated bibliography of reference books used are included.

Basic Music Library: Essential Scores and Books. Michael Fling, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1983. 357p. $12.00. (0-8389-0375-4)

This book provides materials in 12 different sections on music including reference and biography. It is arranged by format, medium and subject.

Behavior Management in the School Library Media Center. Thomas Hart, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 166p. $15.00 (0-8389-0420-7)

This book is composed of a series of articles on the theory and practice of behavior modification and its applications in the school library media center.

Behind the Covers: Interviews with Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults. Jim Roginski. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 249p. $23.50. (0-87287-506-7)

This alphabetically arranged book focuses on interviews of illustrators and authors of juvenile literature. A bibliography of published works and a list of awards and honors by book are appended for each subject along with title references to further appropriate biographical sources.

Best Books for Children: Preschool Through the Middle Grades, 3rd ed. John T. Gillespie and Christine B. Gilbert. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 595p. $34.50. (0-8352-2131-8)

This annotated list of over 11,000 books provides some 500 subject areas in all academic disciplines. Entries are arranged alphabetically by author under each subject area and include author/illustrator index, title index, list of biographical subjects, and a subject index.

Best Books for Young Adults 1986. ALA Young Adult Services Division. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. $5.00. (0-8389-5683-1)

This book contains 50 annotated titles of special interest to teens.

Best Encyclopedias: A Guide to General and Specialized Encyclopedias. Kenneth F. Kister. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1986. 368p. $39.50. (0-89774-171-4)

The author evaluates 50 general encyclopedias, from multivolume sets for adults and older students to one-volume children's works. Each review describes the encyclopedia's scope and contents, compares it to other similar titles, give ordering information, and lists other reviews of the work. Appendixes offer easy-to-use charts comparing general encyclopedias of different sizes and types.

The Best in Children's Books. Zena Sutherland. Chicago, IL: University of Chicago Press, 1986. 528p. $35.00. (0-226-78060-0)

A collection of selected reviews that appeared in the Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books is alphabetically arranged.

The Best of Book Bonanza. Lee Bennett Hopkins. New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1980. 243p. $10.95. (0-0305-2681-7)

This guide describes the use of books in elementary and junior high school. It gives the recommended reading age of the best books from 1974 to 1980 and of older standard titles. A list of professional readings is at the end of the chapters.

Best Reference Books 1981–1985. Susan Holte and Bohdan S. Wynar. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 504p. $45.00. (0-87287-554-7)

The reference titles in this guide are selected based on their usefulness to practicing librarians. The lengthy reviews have been updated and all bibliographic information is current.

The Best Science Books and Films for Children. Susan M. O'Connell and Valerie J. Montenegro, comps. Washington, DC: American Association for the Advancement of Science, 1987. 350p. $20.00.

This guide provides an annotated list of recommended science books, films, filmstrips, and videocassettes for children in kindergarten through junior high. The volume includes title, subject, author, and distributor indexes.

BIAS (Building Instruction Around Sex-Equity): Bibliography of Non-Sexist Supplementary Books (K-12). Center for Sex Equity, Division of Multicultural Education, Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1983. 200p. $28.00.

This list annotates non-sexist books by reading level and includes the gender and ethnicity of the major character, if available.

Bibliography of Books for Children. Washington, DC: Association for Childhood Education International (ACEI), 1986. 112p. $6.55. (0-87173-095-2)

This book provides annotations for fiction, nonfiction, and reference books, and for periodicals. Ordering information and recommended age levels are provided.

Bibliography of Nonsexist Supplementary Books (K-12). Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory, Center for Sex Equity. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1984. 120p. $22.50.

The books are organized by reading grade level, listed by number of careers included in the book, and organized by topics such as Families/Friendship/Health/Human Development. The guide is indexed by title and subject area.

Bibliography of Universally Available Curriculum Materials for South Asian Languages, Part One: Hindi/Urdu, Kashmiri, Khowar, Marathi, Nepali and Panjalu Languages. Occasional Publication 9. (ED254-090).

This bibliography brings together curriculum materials for Hindi, Urdu, Kashmiri, Khowar, Marathi, Nepali and Panjalu cultures. An index categorizes the documents by type (dictionaries and glossaries) and language.

Bilingual-Bicultural Education: An Annotated Bibliography, 1936–1982. Octavio A. Ballesteros. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1983. 104p. $15.95. (0-89950-077-3)

This bibliography contains 413 bilingual-bicultural education sources arranged in 11 sections.

Bilingual Books in Spanish and English for Children. Doris C. Dale. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 163p. $23.50. (0-87287-447-X)

This bibliography annotates 254 titles for preschool through the elementary grades. It includes author, title, and subject indexes.

Bilingual Education Publications in Print, 1983: Including Audiovisual Materials. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1983. 600p. $45.00. (0-8352-1605-5)

This list provides 25,000 publications at all grade levels in Spanish, French, German, Hebrew, Chinese, Russian, Vietnamese, and other languages.

Biography Puzzlers. Candy Colborn. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 161p. $17.50. (0065-9959-538-5)

The puzzles give students an opportunity to refine their research skills while becoming acquainted with several biographical reference tools. The puzzles have been designed to reinforce students' abilities to use alphabetical order, to follow index references and cross references, to scan for information, to select appropriate subheadings in long articles, and to learn the names and arrangements of various biographical tools.

The Black American in Books for Children: Readings in Racism. Donnarae McCann and Gloria Woodard, eds. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 298p. $25.00. (0-8108-1826-4)

This book provides articles on black literature, education, publishing, law, culture, and social history. It includes an author index, a title index, and a listing of the Coretta Scott King Award winners.

The Black Experience in Children's Books. Barbara Rollock. New York: New York Public Library, Office of Branch Libraries, 1984. $3.00. (8710-4637-7)

This book annotates titles about the black experience, arranged geographically and by subject areas such as picture books, readers, stories for young children, stories, folklore, poetry and verse, music and the arts, race and racism, civil rights, biography, periods of history, and references.

Black Impressions: A Book List for Children and Parents to Share. Sammie Allen et al. Baltimore: Enoch Pratt Free Library, 1986. 21p. $1.00.

This list contains books of interest to children, preschool through grade six. Topics include picture books and more, stories and more. . . fiction, stories and more. . . nonfiction, and a word to parents. It is arranged by title under those topics.

The Book Report. Carolyn Hamilton, ed. Columbus, OH: Linworth Publishing Co., 5 issues/yr. $30/yr. (0731-4388)

This newsletter reviews materials for secondary school libraries. High/low titles of books, media and software are reviewed by practicing librarians. It includes reviews of "not recommended" items.

The Bookfinder: A Guide to Children's Literature about the Needs and Problems Published 1979 Through 1982. Vol. 3. Sharon Spredemann Dreyer. Circle Pines, MN: American Guidance Service, 1985. 649p. $44.50. (0-9134-7648-X)

This volume annotates books published from 1979 through 1982 on topics of concern to children. It lists reading levels and indicates whether the item is available in another format, including braille, talking books, or other paperback editions.

Booklist and Subscription Book Bulletin. Chicago, IL: The American Library Association. Bimonthly. $47/yr.

Fry Graphs are used to determine readability levels of easy-to-read books for beginners and older children with reading problems. It includes High-Low Reading, for books with high interest potential for teenagers and Books for Young Adults.

Booklist Bookwaves. Walnut Creek, CA: Bay Area Young Adult Librarians (BAYA), 1986. 154p. $8.50.

This book provides reviews for fiction and nonfiction titles, arranged by subject. It includes an author-title index.

Books and Films on Death and Dying for Children and Adolescents: An Annotated Bibliography. Volunteers of the Good Grief Program, comps. Boston: Good Grief Program, 1985. 96p. $8.00.

This list of 225 books and films provides information on the publisher or distributor, book length, and contents. Each annotation details who died, the cause of death, racial/ethnic focus, and urban/rural/suburban setting.

Books and Real Life: A Guide for Gifted Students and Teachers. Nancy Polette. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1984. 77p. $15.95. (0-89950-119-2)

This annotated collection of 130 titles, 83 at the preschool level and 47 at the K-9 junior level, contains a number of suggestions, questions, and instructions to assist a teacher or other adult in helping gifted children think about such topics as the changing family, peer relationships, death, divorce, violence, handicaps, and old age. A subject index is included.

Books and the Teenage Reader: A Guide for Teachers, Librarians and Parents. G. Robert Carlson, ed. New York: Harper & Row, 1980. 290p. (0-0601-0626-3)

This book annotates books for teenagers arranged under five levels: subliterature, the adolescent novel, the popular adult book, significant modern literature, and the classics. It includes information on censorship, drama, literature by and about women, science fiction, and fantasy.

Books Appeal: Get Teenagers into the School Library. Karen Cornell Gomberg. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1987. 129p. $13.95. (0-89950-255-5)

Aimed at junior high, this book suggests more than 200 ways to lure students into the library. Contests, games, displays, bulletin-board ideas, bibliographies, exhibits, and reference book activities are some of the ideas outlined.

Books for Children. Margaret Coughlan et al. Washington, DC: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1985. 24p. $1.00.

This book contains a selection of picture books and story books (fiction and nonfiction) for ages 6–14. Books are arranged by age group and type of story, and are listed alphabetically by title within these categories.

Books for Secondary School Libraries, 6th ed. Library Committee of the National Association of Independent Schools. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1981. 844p. $34.95. (0-8352-1114-8)

This bibliography lists over 9,000 nonfiction titles for college-bound high school students. The titles are arranged according to the Dewey Decimal System.

Books for the Gifted Child. Barbara H. Baskin. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1980. 263p. $17.95. (0-8352-1161-4)

This guide is designed to help librarians, teachers, and parents select books that respond to the special capabilities and promote the intellectual growth of gifted youngsters.

Books for the Teen Age. Lillian Morrison. New York: New York Public Library, Office of Branch Libraries, 1987. 63p. $6.00.

This list identifies over 1,000 titles of interest to teen-agers arranged under broad headings. It includes an author and title index.

Books for Today's Children: An Annotated Bibliography of Non-Stereotyped Picture Books. Jeanne Bracken and Sharon Wigutoff, comp. New York: Feminist Press at The City University of New York, 42p. $4.95. (0-912670-53-3)

This annotated list provides recommendations for 200 picture books. Categories include single parents, working mothers, handicaps, multi-racial, sensitive boys, and adventurous girls.

Books for Today's Young Readers: An Annotated Bibliography of Recommended Fiction for Ages 10–14. Jeanne Bracken and Sharon Wigutoff. New York: Feminist Press at The City University of New York, 1981. 64p. $4.95. (0-935312-03-X)

The authors have organized the 200 listings into 7 thematic sections, each with an introduction that summarizes the achievements and shortcomings of the books to follow. The seven themes include self-awareness, gender, and growth; racial and ethnic diversity; children's special needs; families, foster care, and adoptions; families—separation and divorce; illness and death; aging and inter-generational relationships. It includes author, title, and subject indexes.

Books for You: A Booklist for Senior High Students. Robert Small, ed. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1985. 323p. $8.00. (0-8141-03634)

This list has 1,400 annotated entries grouped in 35 subject categories. The compilers describe the particular appeal of each book for senior high school readers. It includes fiction and nonfiction.

Books in Print, 8 Vols. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. Published Annually. $199.95. (0-8352-2279-9)

Author and title list of currently available books.

Books In Spanish for Children and Young Adults: An Annotated Guide, Series III. Isabel Schon. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 208p. $16.50. (0-8108-1807-8)

This annotated bibliography lists books written in Spanish by country of origin. Fiction, folklore, poetry, and appropriate nonfiction subheadings are used to further divide the titles from each country. The books are rated. Author and title indexes, as well as a list of American book dealers specializing in books in Spanish is included.

Books Kids Will Sit Still For: A Guide to Using Children's Literature, for Librarians, Teachers, and Parents. Judy Freeman. Hagerstown, MD: Alleyside Press, 1984. 210p. $4.95. (0-913853-02-X)

Over 1,000 titles for reading aloud are arranged under such headings as "Read Aloud Fiction;" "Folk and Fairy Tales, Myths and Legends;" and "Poetry and Other Nonsensical Nonfiction." The fiction lists are recommended for a two-grade span with each list overlapping the previous one. Author, title, specific subject, and age and interest level indexes are included.

Books to Help Children Cope with Separation and Loss, 2nd ed. Joanne E. Bernstein. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1983. 439p. $34.95. (0-8352-1484-2)

The book annotates 420 recommended titles to help children from ages 3 to 16 overcome the grief one encounters as a result of a tragedy. The titles are arranged under subjects such as death, divorce, war, going to a new school, getting used to a new neighborhood, and accepting step-parents. Author, title, specific subject, and ages and interest level indexes are included.

Books to Share: Notable Children's Books of 1986. Children's Services. Elmsford, NY: Westchester Library System, 1986. 16p. $2.50.

The 50 children's librarians of Westchester Library System provide their choices of juvenile titles worth sharing with children. Suggestions for classroom use, and a section on picture books for all ages are included.

Booktalk! 2: Booktalking for All Ages and Audiences, 2nd ed. Joni Bodart. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1985. 388p. $20.00 (0-8242-0716-5)

This book discusses the merits and "how-to's" of booktalking including planning booktalks, handling hassles, and how to teach booktalking. Sample booktalks for 260 titles (for ages K-Adult) are provided.

Building Library Collections, 6th ed. Arthur Curley and Dorothy Broderick. Metuchen, NJ. Scarecrow Press, 1985. 342p. $18.75. (0-8108-1776-4)

This revised edition includes the growth of resource-sharing networks, the importance of nonbook formats, censorship challenges, and the expansion of the library's potential informational role.

Building Reference Skills in the Elementary School. M. Ellen and Hilda L. Jay. Hamden, CT: Library Professional Publications, 1986. 200p. $25.00. (0-208-2098-5)

This book provides library skills lessons on using encyclopedias, factbooks, almanacs, thesauruses, reference books, atlases, pictorial histories, periodicals, newspapers, and computer software.

Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books. Betsy Hearne, ed. Chicago, IL: University of Chicago Press. 11 issues/yr. $22.00/yr. (0008-9036)

This bulletin provides descriptive and evaluative reviews of both fiction and nonfiction books for children and young adults. Reviews emphasize curriculum uses of the books, as well as, their literary merit.

Caldecott Search-A-Word Learning Guide. Irene Wood Bell. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 180p. $19.00. (0065-9959-592-X)

The guide provides puzzles for 44 Caldecott Award winners from 1940 to the present. It's two sections (1) supply puzzles that can be used as teaser activities or as preactivities to capture the students' interest even before the book is read and (2) furnish puzzles that provide reinforcement by requiring students to recall incidents from the stories they have read.

Career Planning Materials: A Guide to Sources and Their Uses. Roberta R. Egelston. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1981. 190p. $20.00. (0-8389-0343-6)

This guide provides sources for career planning materials and ideas for their uses to librarians and vocational educators.

Careers in Fact and Fiction. June K. Bienstock and Ruth Bienstock Anolik, comps. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 180p. $18.95. (0-8389-0424-6)

The compilers annotate over 1,000 autobiographies, biographies, novels, nonfiction books, and plays dealing with careers.

Celebrations: Read-Aloud Holiday and Theme Book Programs. Caroline Feller Bauer. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1985. 301p. $35.00. (0-8242-0708-4)

This guide offers holiday programs to help librarians and teachers celebrate the holidays. It offers prose selections, poems, activities, and a booklist. The activity sections contain recipes, jokes, crafts, and tips for creative writing and bulletin board displays.

Censorship: A Guide for Successful Workshop Planning. Linda Schexnaydre and Nancy Burns. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1984. 114p. $25.00. (0-89774-093-9)

This guide provides instructions for conducting a one-day workshop on censorship. It includes handouts, sample publicity materials, training techniques, and sample policies and procedures for the handling of censorship complaints from the public.

Chalk in Hand: The Draw and Tell Book. Phyllis Noe Pflomm. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 126p. $16.50. (0-8108-1921-X)

The author provides 35 separate draw-and-tell stories.

Challenging the Gifted: Curriculum Enrichment and Acceleration Models. Corinne P. Clendening and Ruth Ann Davis. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1983. 482p. $39.95. (0-8352-1682-9)

This text provides 15 field-tested model learning programs for librarians and teachers of gifted children in grades K-12.

Child Sexual Abuse and Prevention Resources. Chicago, IL: National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse, 1985. 200p. $2.50.

This book provides 125 sources of materials intended to help prevent child sexual abuse. It includes audiovisual materials, instructional materials for teachers and parents, as well as materials for children.

Children and Books. Zena Sutherland and May Hill Arbuthnot. Glenview, IL: Scott, Foresman, 1986. 751p. $28.95. (0-6731-8069-7)

This document provides guidance for book selection, study of literary history and criticism, definition and characterization of children's literature types, and recommendations of author's favorite titles. It includes an instructor's manual.

Children and Divorce: An Annotated Bibliography and Guide. Evelyn B. Hausslein, New York: Garland Publishing, 1983. 140p. $18.00. (0-8240-9391-7)

This list of books and articles reflects a wide range of professional opinions on children and divorce. The bibliography includes some audiovisual resources.

Children's Book Awards and Prizes. New York: Children's Book Council, 1985. 276p. $50.00. (0-933633-00-9)

This book provides a list of honors awarded in the children's book field including major international and foreign awards of English-speaking and some non-English speaking countries.

Children's Books in Print 1987–1988. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 975p. $69.95. (0-8352-2257-8)

This book provides current information on 41,344 books for preschool through grade 12 indexed by author, title, and illustrator. A directory of publishers and distributors is included. All types of books have been indexed, fiction and nonfiction, in paper, hardcover, or library binding.

Children's Books of International Interest: A Selection from Four Decades of American Publishing. Barbara Elleman, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 102p. $7.50. (0-8389-3314-9)

The 350 books listed treat topics of universal appeal among children.

Children's Books of the Year. Child Study Children's Book Committee. New York: Bank Street College, 1985. 26p. $4.00

Bibliographic information on 500 titles are arranged according to age and interest. It includes paperbacks, reprints, and new editions of old favorites.

Children's Caravan: A Reading Activities Idea Book for Use with Children. Judith Kimball. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1983. 75p. $9.95.

This book provides a variety of reading program ideas for children of all ages.

Children's Catalog, 15th ed. Richard H. Isaacson and Gary L. Bogart, eds. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1986. 1,298p. $72.00. (0-8242-0743-2)

This edition annotates over 5000 titles and analytical entries. It is arranged according to the Dewey Decimal System and includes complete bibliographic data. The supplements will add approximately 2,200 new titles.

Children's Choices for 1986. IRA-Children's Book Council Joint Committee. Newark, DE: International Reading Association, 1986. Single Copy Free.

This is an annual selection by young readers of recently published trade books that children themselves like.

Children's Classics: With Lists of Recommended Editions. Amy L. Cohn. Boston: Horn Book, Inc., 1985. 20p. $3.00. (0-87675-142-7)

This guide describes what makes a children's classic and provides an annotated list of the best editions of individual children's classics.

Children's Fiction, 1876–1984: A Bibliography of United States Editions. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 2,000p. 2 Vol. $89.95. (0-8352-1831-7)

Indexed by author, title and illustrator, this list includes novels, short stories, folklore and fairy tales, mythology, poetry, and riddles.

Children's Literature: A Guide to Reference Sources and Monographs. Margaret A. Bush. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 250p. $19.50.

This guide provides reference tools and standard works on children's literature. Arrangement is by subject, with each chapter including brief introductory comments outlining the particular attributes of the subject area.

Children's Literature: A Guide to the Criticism. Linnea Hendrickson. Boston: G.K. Hall, 1987. 664p. $35.00. (0-8161-8670-7)

Articles and books about young adult literature are included in an annotated bibliography of literary criticism.

Children's Literature for All Handicapped Children. Anne M. Ferguson. Alexandria, VA: ERIC Document Reproduction Service, ED 234541, 1981. 40p.

This list reviews 14 books that deal realistically with handicaps.

Children's Literature from A to Z. Jon C. Statt. New York: McGraw-Hill, 1984. 318p. $12.95.

The entries include biographies of more than 200 authors and illustrators; descriptions of folktales, animal stories, myths, fantasies and fairy tales; essays on the major kinds of children's literature; and information about awards in the field.

Children's Literature in the Elementary Schools, 4th ed. Charlotte S. Huck et al. New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1987. 753p. $23.50. (0-03-041770-8)

This revised edition describes children's literature, and includes a discussion on various genres and on making literature central to the curriculum.

Children's Literature in the Reading Program. Bernice E. Cullinan. Newark, DE: International Reading Association, 1987. 171p. $18.00. (0-87207-782-9)

Divided into five sections, the book addresses why we need children's literature in the classroom, gives advice on integrating books into the K-8 levels, and discusses the broader contexts in which literature can be used to teach reading. A bibliography is included.

Children's Periodicals of the United States. R. Gordon Kelly. Westport, CT: Greenwood, 1984. 591p. $49.95. (0-313-22117-0)

This guide describes 423 magazines and newspapers for children with beginning publication dates ranging from 1789 to 1980. The entries are arranged alphabetically and cover from three to ten pages.

Childview: Evaluating and Reviewing Materials for Children. Claire England and Adele M. Fasick. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 207p. $23.50. (0-87287-519-9)

This edition provides a theoretical and practical discussion of the issues involved in reviewing and evaluating materials for children, with specific reference to each of the many kinds of materials, both print and nonprint. Types and formats of literature (including picture books) for children up to age 12 are included.

Choice. Rebecca Dixon, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, Association of College and Research Libraries. 12 issues/yr. $95.00/yr. (0009-4978)

This publication contains more than 500 reviews of print and nonprint materials each issue. Useful for schools with college preparatory or gifted and talented students.

Choose, Use, Enjoy, Share: Library Media Skills for the Gifted Child. Phyllis B. Leonard. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 169p. $23.50. (0-87287-417-6)

The author describes how library media specialists and classroom teachers can work together to create a library media-centered program suitable for gifted elementary school students. Models, groupings, strategies, and materials are suggested in a grade-appropriate scope and sequence. Sample lessons are included.

Choosing Books for Children: A Commonsense Guide. Betsy Hearne. New York: Delacorte, 1981. 150p. $11.95. (0-440-01930-3)

This book provides information on selecting books for children grades (K-8). Annotated bibliographies at the end of each chapter are included.

Choosing Books for Young People, Vol. 2: A Guide to Criticism and Bibliography, 1976–1984. John R. T. Ettlinger and Diana L. Spirt. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1987. 152p. $43.50. (0-89774-247-8)

This guide provides annotations to books for children and young adults and includes works on reference books, books for the mentally disabled, and books for immigrants.

Choosing Educational Software: A Buyer's Guide. Carol Truett and Lori Gillespie. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 216p. $18.50. (0-87287-388-9)

The authors offer guidelines for evaluating and purchasing software for grades K-12. They list software sources, suggest selection aids, and discuss the value of published reviews on educational software.

Circulation Systems for School Media Centers. Nevada Thomason. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 250p. $23.50. (0-87287-370-6)

This introductory handbook describes 20 circulation software packages designed to streamline clerical functions, record and organize statistics, and provide data for managerial decision making. An appendix lists vendors and companies that produce microcomputer systems.

Classroom Computer News Directory of Educational Computing Resources. Carol Nuccio, ed. Watertown, MA: International Education, Inc., 1983. 200p. $29.00.

An annual directory that lists sources of people, places, and things having to do with computers. It includes bibliographies, indexes, anthologies, software directories, and funding sources.

The Collection Program in Elementary and Middle Schools: Concepts, Practices and Information Sources. Phyllis J. Van Orden. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1982. 302p. $18.50. (0-87287-335-8)

This book provides school library management strategy for building school level collections.

The Collection Program in High Schools: Concepts, Practices and Information Sources. Phyllis J. Van Orden. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 290p. $23.50.

This text provides an overview of the processes and procedures associated with developing, maintaining, and evaluating a collection at the building level. The text is divided into three main sections: the setting, the selection of materials, and administrative matters.

Collection Management for School Library Media Centers. Brenda White, ed. New York: Haworth, 1986. 383p. $29.95. (0-86656-416-0)

The book offers advice and identifies trends and issues in collection development. It is divided into five sections with twenty-seven articles by authors well known in the school library media field.

Commonsense Copyright: A Guide to the New Technologies. R.S. Talab. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1986. 176p. $14.95. (0-89950-224-5)

This book provides information on database downloading, off-air taping, video licensing, satellite use, closed circuit viewing, computer software, backup copies, photocopying, reprinting, and reusing of the new technologies. It includes materials for nonprofits, library photocopying, movie and TV taping.

Complete Media Monitor: Guide to Learning Resources. Mary R. Sive. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1981. 197p. $17.50. (0-8108-1466-8)

This guide reviews learning resources on such topics as career education, energy, consumerism, health and safety, and values. It includes media graphic details and short annotations. Sources for free-loan films, games, government publications, and professional materials are listed.

A Comprehensive Guide to Children's Literature with a Jewish Theme. Enid Davis. New York: Schocken, 1981. 177p. $18.95. (0-8052-3760-7)

This book covers over 450 books with Jewish themes. It includes author, title, and subject indexes.

Computer Books for Children: A Basic List. Children's Services Department of Cuyahoga County Public Library. Cleveland, OH: Cuyahoga Public Library, 1986. Single copies free.

This annotated list of 50 basic computer books for children is arranged by author, with grade level indicated.

Computerized Cataloguing. Eric J. Hunter. Hamden, CT: Shoe String Press, 1985. 215p. $19.50. (0-85157-337-0)

This book explains what a computer can do by introducing the concepts of inputting, storing, manipulating and outputting cataloging data.

Computerized Collection Development for School Library Media Centers. David V. Loertscher and Mary Lein Ho. Fayetteville, AK: Hi Willow Research and Publications, 1986. $40.00. (Distributed by Libraries Unlimited)

The authors present standards for school library media center collection development and their implementation through a series of printed instructions.

Computing Teacher. Dave Mounsund. Eugene, OR: International Council for Computers in Education. 9 issues/yr. $21.50/yr. (0278-9175)

This publication provides descriptive and evaluative reviews of software and books. Includes articles by practitioners.

Connections: Using Contemporary Children's Literature (K-9) in the Classroom. Carole Lovett Koontz, ed. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1985. 72p. $7.50. (0-8326-016)

The document provides ideas for using 52 titles as teaching aids. Summaries, discussion questions, and connections to other materials in six major categories are included.

The Constitution in the Classroom: Ideas and Resources for Teaching and Learning About the U.S. Constitution. Paula O'Connor, comp. Washington, DC: American Federation of Teachers, 1987. 2p. Single copy free.

This list provides ideas and resources for teaching and learning about the U.S. Constitution.

The Consumer Health Information Source Book, 2nd ed. Alan N. Rees and Jodith Jones. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1984. 529p. $39.95. (0-8352-1877-5)

This guide to 700 sources of health information provides annotations of bibliographies, books, magazines, clearing houses, and hotlines for curriculum development.

A Consumers, Researchers, and Students: Guide to Government Publications. Betsy McIlvaine. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1983. 128p. $8.00. (0-8242-0690-8)

This list of inexpensive federal publications explains what they are, how to use them, how to find them, and how to track them down using computer databases.

Creating Programs for the Gifted: A Guide for Teachers, Librarians, and Students. Corinne P. Clendening and Ruth Ann Davies. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1980. 574p. $29.95. (0-8352-1265-3)

This reference provides the basics for designing, structuring, implementing, and evaluating programs for the gifted and talented. Drawing from 60 field tested programs, it gives in-depth coverage of such basic aspects as independent study, content enrichment, curricular modifications, and instructional methods.

Creative Encounters: Activities to Expand Children's Responses to Literature. Anne T. Polkingham and Catherine Toohey. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 120p. $15.00.

This book provides 50 titles followed by craft ideas, related books, and additional activities for a structured library program.

Creative Reading for Gifted Learners. Michael Labuda. Newark, DE: International Reading Association, 1985. 170p. $10.50. (0-87207-742-X)

These 16 papers address the process of identifying and planning programs for gifted children.

Creative Slide/Tape Programs. Lee Green. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 351p. $20.00. (0-87287-44-3)

This book describes the steps in planning, designing, and producing both the script and the visuals of a slide/tape program. It includes ideas for using slide/tape programs in elementary and secondary schools.

Creative Uses of Children's Literature. Mary Ann Paulin. Hamden, CT: Library Professional Publications, 1986. 730p. $49.50. (0-208-01861-1)

This list contains over 6,000 titles as well as suggestions for introducing elementary school children to children's literature, including picture books, fiction, poetry, and drama. Multiple, detailed indexes list books by titles; list nonprint materials; and 2,000 topical subjects subdivided by grade level, age, and relationship to school curricular areas.

Creative Writing Through Films: An Instructional Program for Secondary Students. Bruce J. Wagner et al. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 224p. $23.50. (0-87287-432-X)

The author explains how basic skills in creative writing can be taught through films.

Current Career and Occupational Literature. Leonard H. Goodman, comp. New York: H. W. Wilson, 1984. 198p. $30.00. (0-8242-0703-3)

This source provides vocational career information that is either inexpensive or free.

Curriculum Review. Irene Goldman, ed. Chicago, IL: Curriculum Advisory Service. 5 issues/yr. $35.00 yr. (0147-2453)

This publication evaluates textbooks, trade books, and supplementary materials in all K-12 curriculum areas, but primarily language arts, math, science, and social studies.

A Deafness Collection: Selected and Annotated. Audrey L. Ritter. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 214p. $35.00. (0-8389-6921-6)

The guide provides a full range of materials on deafness. Audiology, communication, deaf awareness, the deaf community, education, hearing aids, interpreting, mainstreaming, psychology, sign language, and speech reading are some of the topics covered.

Defusing Censorship: The Librarian's Guide to Handling Censorship Conflicts. Frances M. Jones. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1983. 240p. (0-89774-093-9)

This book describes actual censorship disputes in public and school libraries and their legal ramification. Five appendixes include sample policies and guidelines, a list of banned books, an outline for inservice training in intellectual freedom, intellectual freedom statements, and places where to go for help. Also included is a list of sources for recommended reading.

Desk Dictionaries: A Consumer's Guide. Robert Pierson. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 40p. $2.95. (0-8389-3316-5)

This guide presents 20 currently available top-rated desk dictionaries. Paperback editions and pocket dictionaries are included.

Developing Career Information Centers: A Guide to Collection Building and Counseling. Sara Fine. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1980. $19.95. (0-9182-1219-7)

This document provides guidelines for vocational librarians in high school, junior college, and adult education programs.

Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature: An Idea Book for K-5 Classrooms and Libraries. Mildred K. Laughlin and Letty S. Watt. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1986. 256p. $36.00. (0-89774-258-3)

This book provides 60 units arranged by grade level with a focus on specific authors, topics, and types of literature. Each unit gives student objectives, biographical sources, recommended books, and introductory and follow-up activities. The appendixes list collective biographical sources, sources for book introduction techniques, and publishers addresses.

Developing Library Collection. G. Edward Evans. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 400p. $22.50. (0065-9959-546-6)

This document emphasizes developing information collections rather than format collections.

Developing Library-Museum Partnerships to Serve Young People. Hilda L. Jay and M. Ellen Jay. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1984. 180p. $15.00. (0-208-01921-9)

This handbook suggests ways to coordinate museum resources in the card catalog and existing museum programs.

Dickinson's American Historical Fiction, 5th ed. Virginia B. Gerhardstein. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 368p. $27.50. (0-8108-1867-1)

This edition lists, annotates, and classifies by period 3,048 novels that interpret and illustrate the American experience from the earliest colonists through 1984.

Dictionary of American Children's Fiction, 1960–1984. Alethea K. Helbig and Agnes R. Perkins. Westpost, CT: Greenwood, 1987. 914p. $65.00. (0-313-26233-5)

This volume contains 1,550 alphabetical entries with plot synopses, critical evaluations, and authors and characters. A detailed index covers subjects, themes, unusual narrative structures, and genres and lists all books by awards and citations they have won.

Directory of Microcomputer Software for Libraries. Robert Walton and Nancy Taylor. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1987. $37.00. (0-89774-342-3)

The authors have compiled a directory of all identifiable software, with abstracts to illustrate functional capabilities and the intended audience.

Disability In Modern Children's Fiction. John Quicke. Boston: Brookline Books, 1985. 176p. $17.95. (0-924797-09-3)

This tool is organized around the themes of family relationship, the child's own struggle for selfhood, the child's relationship with peers and society at large, adolescent love and sexuality, and the child's relationship with disabled adults.

Display and Publicity Ideas for Libraries. Linda Campbell Franklin. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1985. 264p. $14.95. (0-89950-168-0)

The author presents several hundred good topical ideas for bulletin boards, displays, posters, and other publicity that can be produced inexpensively and without special expertise.

Doors to More Mature Reading: Detailed Notes on Adult Books for Use With Young People, 2nd ed. Elinor Walker. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1982. $7.50. (0-8389-0344-4)

This book provides summaries of the plots and notes for more than 125 adult nonfiction and fiction titles that appeal to teens. Entries include suggestions for booktalks and a short list of related books for follow-up reading.

Dyslexia: An Annotated Bibliography. Mary Sirianni and Sandy Feinberg, comps. Centereach, NY: Children's Services Department, Middle County Public Library, 1986. 32p. $1.50.

Organized into two sections, this book lists materials about famous dyslexic people and list fiction titles about dyslexic children. It contains a "Materials for Parents" section with information in pamphlets, and magazines on dyslexia and on raising dyslexic or learning disabled children.

E is for Everybody: A Manual for Bringing Fine Picture Books Into the Hands and Hearts of Children. Nancy Polette. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 194p. $15.00. (0-8108-1579-6)

This volume reviews picture books published between 1976 and 1982 and includes activities to be used with picture books.

Early Childhood Literature Sharing Programs in Libraries. Ann D. Carlson. Hamden, CT: Library Professional Publications, 1985. 136p. $13.50. (0-208-02074-8)

This book provides literature sharing programs including word, rhyme, and rhythm experiences for children under the age of three. It charts children's interests and abilities from 0–6 months, 7–24 months, and 25–36 months, and matches them with related activities that can be undertaken with both children and the adults who care for them.

Easy-to-Read Books for Teenagers. New York: New York Public Library, Office of Branch Libraries, 1985. 14p. $1.50 plus mailing costs of $1.00.

This book lists fiction and nonfiction titles with readability in the first-to-fourth-grade range.

Educational Film Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R. Bowker Co. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1986. 2,925p. $150.00.

A guide to educational films available from the 50 consortium members, listed under subject, title, and series.

El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. Published Annually. 1,100p. $75.00. (000-0825)

This annual list contains full bibliographic information for more than 45,000 texts, reference works, and teaching aids arranged in 21 broad categories. It includes vocation/technical items, periodicals, and programmed learning materials for grades K-12.

Electronic Learning. Englewood Cliffs, NJ: Electronic Learning (Scholastic). 8 issues/yr. $19.00/yr. (0278-3258)

This publication provides software reviews.

The Elementary School Journal. Chicago, IL: University of Chicago Press. 5 issues/yr $25.00/yr.

This periodical lists professional publications, books, and audiovisual materials of interest to teachers and students.

The Elementary School Library Collection: A Guide to Books and other Media, Phases 1-2-3, 15th ed. Lois Wenkel, ed. Williamsport, PA: Brodart, 1986. 1,067p. $79.95. (0-8727-2091-8)

This guide lists multimedia titles for preschool through sixth grade. Interest levels are indicated and reading ability levels are assigned for books using the Spache Readability Formula for first and second grade and the Fry Graph for third grade and higher.

The Elementary School Paperback Collection. John T. Gillespie. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 306p. $17.50. (0-8389-0419-X)

This is a subject arranged guide with more than 4,000 annotations of books for preschool to grade six.

Encyclopedia of Health Information Sources. Paul Wasserman, ed. Detroit: Gale Research, 1987. 483p. $135.00. (0-8103-2135-1)

This guide lists approximately 13,000 publications, organizations, databases, research centers, and other resources under some 450 subject headings. The citations cover the entire range of health concerns, including specific diseases, medical specialists, health administration, medical procedures, and medical issues.

The English Journal. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English. 8 issues /yr. $30.00/yr. (0013-8274)

Each issue reviews books covering literature for adolescents.

EPIE Reports. Stony Brook, NY: Educational Products Information Exchange Institute, 8 issues/yr. $75.00/yr.

This periodical provides reports and newsletters on materials and equipment.

Equal Rights Amendment: An Annotated Bibliography of the Issues. Renee Feinberg, comp. Westport, CT: Greenwood, 1987. 151p. $29.95 (0-313-24762-5)

The author lists over 700 newspaper and journal articles, books, documents, television news broadcasts, and other items. It includes author and subject indexes.

Evaluation Education Software. Carol A. Doll. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 88p. $9.95. (0-8389-0474-2)

This book provides advice and guidance for school library media specialists and teachers on choosing high-quality software for teachers. Included is an evaluation checklist to assist the teacher and school library media specialists in balancing the strengths and weaknesses of a particular program. A brief glossary and bibliography of additional resources are included.

Exceptional Free Library Resource Materials. Carol Smallwood. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 233p. $22.00. (0-87287-406-OX)

Organized into 27 broad categories ranging from agriculture to world history, this guide identifies free materials in a variety of formats such as hard-cover and paperback books, magazines, newsletters, curriculum guides, posters, charts, maps, kits, games and puzzles. Subject index notes entries that have multidisciplinary use. Buying information is given.

Exciting, Funny, Scary, Short, Different, and Sad Books Kids Like About Animals, Science, Sports, Families, Songs, and Other Things. Frances Laverne Carroll and Mary Meacham, eds. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 192p. $10.00. (0-8389-0423-8)

Organized according to words and phrases children in grades 2–5 use when asking for or describing books. Arranged under 100 subject headings.

Experiencing Children's Literature. Alan C. Purves and Dianne L. Monson. Glenview, IL: Scott, Foresman, 1984. 216p. $16.60. (0-673-15348-7)

This book, written for teachers and librarians, focuses on the reader and the author as partners.

Exploring Books with Gifted Children. Nancy Polette and Marjorie Hamlin. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1980. 214p. $18.50. (0-8728-7216-5)

This guide presents strategies, techniques, and discussion questions for building reading motivation and interest. The appendices list books for unit studies on program development.

The Family Storytelling Handbook: How to Use Stories, Anecdotes, Rhymes, Handkerchiefs, Paper, and Other Objects to Enrich Your Family Traditions. Anne Pellowski. New York: Macmillan, 1987. 139p. $15.95. (0-02-770610-9)

This handbook describes telling stories to children as an effective means of entertainment. A bibliography, a compilation of sources, and a list of story-telling events around the world are appended.

Fantasy for Children. Ruth N. Lynn. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1983. 352p. $24.95. (0-8352-1732-9)

The recommendations in this guide cover all types of fantasy. The bibliographic information includes annotations, suggested grade level, description of the story, and a recommendation symbol indicating the number of favorable reviews.

Feminist Resources for Schools and Colleges: A Guide to Curricular Materials. 3rd ed. Anne Chapman, ed. New York, NY: The Feminist Press at the University of New York, 1985. $9.95. (0-9353-1235)

This book lists more than 500 nonsexist books, pamphlets, articles, audiovisuals, and other materials for curriculum use. The materials are arranged alphabetically by author.

Fiction Catalog, 11th ed. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1986. 951p. $80.00. (0-8242-0728-9)

This book annotates more than 5,100 fiction books. It is arranged alphabetically by author with a descriptive summary of each book.

Fiction, Folklore, Fantasy and Poetry for Children, 1876–1985. New York: R.R. Bowker 1986. 21,563p. $499.95. (0-8352-1831-7)

This document provides 150,000 entries with full bibliographic information for novels, short stories, folklore, riddles, and more. It contains author, title, and illustrator indexes and specific notations for identifying award-winning books.

Fiction for Youth: A Guide to Recommended Books, 2nd ed. Lillian L. Shapiro. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1986. 264p. $24.95. (0-9182-1294-4)

This book presents 650 annotated fiction titles for use by 13 to 18-year-old readers.

A Filmography of the Third World, 1976–1983: An Annotated List of 16 mm Films. Helen W. Cyr. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 285p. $20.00. (0-8108-1768-3)

This volume lists 1,300 feature-length fictional and nonfictional films about the people, culture, and history of the countries of Latin America, Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and the Pacific Ocean region. Also included are films about the ethnic minorities of North America. The entries are annotated and include distributor's names and addresses.

Films and Filmstrips for Language Arts: An Annotated Bibliography. Jill P. May. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1981. 103p. $6.95.

The author has selected and described about 300 films and filmstrips useful in the elementary language arts curriculum. It includes a subject, title, and author index.

Films for, By, and about Women, Series II. Kaye Sullivan. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 790p. $49.50. (0-8108-1766-7)

This list identifies about 3,200 film titles, with full production and ordering information and brief descriptions. It includes a subject index, a directory of distributors, a filmmaker index, and a bibliography.

Films, Young People, and Libraries. Young Adult Services Division. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 96p. $6.50.

The 13 articles provide advice on using films to comment on how films affect youth. The articles discuss visual literacy, trends, young adult filmmakers, and film programming.

First Lady: A Bibliography of Selected Material by and about Eleanor Roosevelt. R. David Myers et al. Washington, DC: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1984. 46p. $2.00. (030-000-00162-1)

This list provides materials on Mrs. Roosevelt's public career and private life.

Focus Units in Literature: A Handbook for Elementary School Teachers. Jay F. Moss. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1984. 238p. $13.00. (0-8141-1756-2)

The guide provides 13 teaching units to adapt to teachers, teaching plans.

Food and Nutrition Information Guide. Paula Szilard. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 400p. $37.50. (0065-9959-457-5)

The author describes the standard reference tools—indexing and abstracting services, bibliographies, and databases. The guide covers diet manuals, nutrition and food consumption survey, government publications and other specialized nutrition resources. All entries include full bibliographic information.

For Reading Out Loud! A Guide to Sharing Books with Children. Margaret Mary Kimmel and Elizabeth Segel. New York: Delacorte, 1983. 230p. $12.95. (0-440-02711-X)

An annotated list of 140 books ideal for reading aloud to children from kindergarten through eighth grade.

Free Magazine for Libraries, 2nd ed. Adeline M. Smith. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1985. 228p. $17.95. (0-8995-0172-9)

This guide provides a classified and annotated list of "in-house" magazines available to libraries on a complimentary basis. It gives title, frequency, audience, and also includes selected U.S. government publications.

Free Resource Builder for Libraries and Teachers. Carol Smallwood, comp. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1986. 319p. $15.95. (0-89950-221-0)

This guide covers 3,000 sources for free booklets, pamphlets, flyers, and other materials. The categories include business and finance, consumer affairs, environment, government and legal affairs, health, and travel and geography.

From Radical Right to Extreme Left: A Bibliography of Current Periodicals of Protest, Controversy, Advocacy, or Dissent, with Dispassionate Content Summaries to Guide Librarians and Other Educators. Gail S. Skidmore and Theodore J. Spahn, eds. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1987. 503p. $59.50. (0-8108-1967-8)

The authors have grouped some 200 political publications under 21 chapters. In addition to bibliographic and ordering information, the entries include objective descriptive annotations. It is indexed by subject, title, editor, publisher, and geographic area.

From Reader to Writer: Creative Writing in the Middle Grades Using Picture Books. Virginia T. Mealy. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 187p. $17.50. (0-8108-1882-5)

This book provides suggested activities for students in grades 4–6 to encourage creative writing. It is arranged by month and grade level and keyed to the seasons. Includes a bibliography.

Fun for Kids: An Index to Children's Crafts Books. Marion F. Gallivan. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1981. 340p. $15.00. (0-8108-1439-0)

This guide covers books in alphabetic order with index by craft.

Games for Information Skills. Margaret R. Tassia. Littleton, CO: Hi Willow Research and Publishing, 1983. 80p. $10.00. (Distributed by Libraries Unlimited) (0-931510066)

This book provides games that teach media skills to elementary school students to support the curriculum in all subject areas. Directions and illustrations of actual game boards are provided.

Genreflecting: A Guide to Reading Interests in Genre Fiction, 2nd Edition. Betty Rosenberg. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 298p. $28.50. (0-87287-530-X)

A guide to genre fiction popular in public and school libraries. Westerns, thrillers, romance, science fiction, fantasy, and supernatural horror genres and subgenres are defined and analyzed. The author provides a listing of anthologies and a selective annotated bibliography of the history and criticism of each genre.

The Gifted and Talented Student. Ina Gravitz. Centereach, NY: Middle County Public Library, Adult Services Department, 1986. $3.50.

This guide annotates over 50 professional books for parents, educators, and students about the gifted student.

Girls Are People Too: A Bibliography of Nontraditionally Female Roles in Children's Books. Joan Newman. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1982. 203p. $16.50. (0-8108-1500-1)

This list is arranged by fiction and nonfiction classifications, and then according to age group-primary and intermediate, and minority.

Glad Rags: Stories and Activities Featuring Clothes for Children. Jan Irving and Robin Currie. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 300p. $20.00. (0065-9959-562-8)

This handbook of programming materials introduces children to literature through a variety of amusing activities centered on the theme of clothes. Concepts covered include specific types of apparel, accessories such as hats and shoes, getting dressed, and taking care of clothes. Annotations are provided for approximately one hundred picture books about clothes.

Good Reading: A Guide for Serious Readers, 22nd ed. Arthur Waldhorn et al. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 352p. $29.95. (0-8352-2100-8)

This book annotates and evaluates over 2,500 books under five major subject headings. It includes chapters on minority cultures and women studies. One hundred significant books are listed and author, title, and subject indexes provided.

Government Reference Books 84/85: A Biennial Guide to U.S. Government Publications. Leroy C. Schwarzkopf, comp. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 432p. $47.50. (0065-9959-542-3)

This ninth biennial volume lists and describes reference documents published during 1984 and 1985. Arranged in four main sections—general reference, social sciences, science and technology, and humanities—the guide includes atlases, bibliographies, catalogs, compendiums, dictionaries, directories, guides, handbooks, indexes, and other reference aids issued by the government.

Grant Proposal Writing: A Handbook for School Library Media Specialists. Blanche Woolls. New York: Greenwood, 1986. 131p. $29.95. (0-313-2440-5)

This guide describes the components of the grant proposal writing process. It provides information, methodology, and insights on making requests for funds for school library media programs.

Great Library Promotion Ideas III: JCD Library Public Relations Award Winners and Notables, 1986. John W. Berry and Beverly Bagan, eds. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 72p. $9.95. (0-8389-3337-8)

This guide describes promotional ideas involving reading clubs, fundraising, outreach to special users, and programs to introduce library services.

Guide to American Literature. Valmai K. Fenster. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 243p. $23.50 (0-8728-7373-0)

This book contains bibliographies for 100 important U.S. authors and includes general tools that would be useful in teaching.

Guide to Information Sources in the Botanical Sciences. Elisabeth B. Davis. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 175p. $32.50 (0-87287-439-7)

This bibliography lists 720 annotated entries in the field of botany. There is a section on historical materials, textbooks, and key publishers and services. It includes an author/title index.

A Guide to Non-Sexist Children's Books, Volume II: 1976–1985. Denise Wilms and Ilene Cooper. Chicago, IL: Academy Chicago, 1987. 240p. $17.95. (0-89733-161-3)

This revised edition provides annotations for more than 600 titles arranged alphabetically in three age groups: preschool to grade 3, grades 4–6, and grades 7–12.

Guide to Popular U.S. Government Publications. Leroy C. Schwarzkopf. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 432p. $29.50. (0-87287-452-4)

This guide identifies over 2,800 federal publications arranged by subject. Each entry includes bibliographical data, the issuing agency, the stock number, price, and a brief annotation.

Guide to Reference Books. Eugene P. Sheehy. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 1,582p. $50.00. (0-8389-0390-8)

This annotated list identifies more than 14,000 reference works from around the world. Reference works are divided into five major sections—general reference, humanities, social sciences, history and area studies, and pure and applied sciences.

Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers. 3rd Edition. Christine Gehrt Wynar. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 407p. $35.00. (0-87287-545-8)

This guide provides 54 subject categories of reference resources in all curriculum areas and for many extracurricular interests. The 2,011 entries cover a wide range of subjects, age and reading levels, styles of presentation, depths of information, and prices.

A Guide to Reference Books for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries, 1970–1982. G. Kim Dority, comp. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 410p. $28.50.

This guide describes 1,179 titles suitable for small and medium-sized libraries. Citations to reviews are provided.

A Guide to Selected Federal Agency Programs and Publications for Librarians and Teachers. Carolyn Smallwood. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 321p. $23.50. (0-87287-528-8)

This source identifies those federal agencies whose services and/or materials will assist teachers and librarians in meeting the information needs of their users.

A Guide to Selecting Books for Children. Robert J. Whitehead. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1984. 317p. $20.00. (0-8108-16191-1)

The author has divided the book into two parts: books for children from the preschool years through grade 2; and books for children from grades 3 to 6. He describes the developmental traits of children in these two age groups and presents lists of books appropriate to them.

Guide to the Petroleum Reference Literature. Barbara C. Pearson and Katherine B. Ellwood. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 193p. $45.00. (0-87287-473-7)

This guide describes 420 sources on the petroleum industry and the related disciplines of chemistry, physics, geology, and engineering. It is arranged by format, including indexing and abstracting services, dictionaries, encyclopedias, directories, databases, periodicals, and trade associations.

Handbook of Instructional Resources and References for Teaching the Gifted. 2nd ed. Frances A. Karnes and Emily C. Collins. Newton, MA: Allyn and Bacon, Inc., 1984. 196p. $25.95. (0-2050-8151-7)

This nonevaluative compilation of commercial materials and resources is suitable for classroom use for gifted elementary and junior high students.

Happenings: Developing Successful Programs for School Libraries. Patricia J. Wilson and Ann C. Kimzey. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 124p. $19.00. (0-87287-522-9, 87-3190)

This handbook describes how to develop programs that promote student awareness of the library, enhance relations between school library media specialists and teachers, and supplement classroom curricula. It covers selecting a theme, choosing a format, identifying resources, and arranging publicity.

Happy Ever After: A Guide to Reading Interests in Romance Fiction. Kristin Ramsdell. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 350p. $27.50. (0065-9959-479-6)

This guide defines and describes romantic fiction subgenres and gives historical overviews, reader's advisory suggestions, and a list of selected authors and titles for each subgenre. Organizations, periodicals, publishers, awards, collections, and a variety of reference and secondary sources are discussed. Historical, romantic suspense, saga, contemporary, young adult, gay, and inspirational are among the romance types covered.

Health Education. Washington, DC: American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Fee included in membership.

This periodical features films, filmstrips, transparencies, slides, kits, study prints, and other media.

Health, Illness, and Disability: A Guide to Books for Children and Young Adults. Pat Azarnoff. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1983. 432p. $29.95. (0-8352-1518-0)

The purpose of this guide is to help health professionals, social workers, psychologists, educators, and parents select and locate books to help children understand the physical, psychological, and social aspects of specific health problems. It annotates about 1,000 books.

Helping Teachers Teach: A School Library/Media Specialist's Role. Phillip M. Turner. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 250p. $18.50. (0-87287-456-7)

This book is designed to help the practitioner become involved in the instructional design consultative role.

Her Way: A Guide to Biographies of Women for Young People. Mary Ellen Siegel and Pat Azarnoff. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1986. 432p. $29.95. (08389-0396-7)

This guide annotates biographies of 1,100 historical and contemporary women and includes a brief profile on each woman as well as ratings for every biography published on her. Three appendices group the women by nationality, by ethnic background, and by descriptive categories such as occupation.

Hey Miss: You Got a Book for Me? A Model Multicultural Resource Collection Annotated Bibliography. Joanna F. Chambers. Austin, TX: Austin Bilingual Language Editions, 1981. 91p. $12.45. (0-940048-01-9)

This bibliography describes books, cassettes, tape recordings, and filmstrips on various minorities.

High-Interest Books for Teens: A Guide to Book Reviews and Bibliographic Sources. Adele Sarkissian, ed. Detroit: Gale Research, 1981. 300p. $46.00. (8103-0599-2)

This book contains 2,000 titles arranged under 1,500 authors' names. It includes a title index.

High Interest-Easy Reading for Junior and Senior High School Students. Hugh Agee, Chair, and the Council of Teachers of English. Urbana, IL: The Council, 1984. 96p. $5.00. (20954R.)

This book describes more than 350 titles of fiction and nonfiction published between 1979 and 1982. All titles have been tested for readability, and none is above eighth-grade level.

High/Low Consensus. Helen E. Williams. Williamsport, PA: Bro-Dart, 1980. 259p. $15.50. (0-87272-088-8)

This book offers brief descriptions of 1,100 high interest/low-reading-level books for junior high school students. Annotations include reading level, interest level, subject headings, and a very brief synopsis of content.

High/Low Handbook: Books, Materials and Services for the Teenage Problem Reader, 2nd edition. Ellen V. LiBretto, ed. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 264p. $29.95. (0-8352-2133-4)

This handbook focuses on the selection, evaluation, and proper use of high interest/low reading level materials. It includes an annotated bibliography of 200 recommended titles for reading levels 1–4 and 100 more titles for levels 5–8.

High Low Report. Thetis P. Reeves, ed. New York: Riverhouse Publications. 10 issues/yr. $11.50/yr. (0191-2283)

This guide reviews high/low materials for reluctant readers in junior and senior high schools.

The High School Mathematics Library, 7th ed. William L. Schaaf. Reston, VA: National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, 1982. 84p. $7.80. (0-8735-3190-6)

This book lists about 925 annotated math titles with starred titles suggested for a basic collection.

A Hispanic Heritage II: A Guide to Juvenile Books about Hispanic People and Cultures. Isabel Schon. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 164p. 1985. $15.00. (0-8108-1727-6)

A useful index identifies titles from kindergarten through high school on the history, art, and political, social, and economic problems of Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Puerto Rico, Spain, Venezuela, and the Hispanic-heritage people of the United States.

Homosexuality: A Research Guide. Wayne R. Dynes. New York: Garland Publishing, 1987. 880p. $47.00. (0-8240-8692-9)

The author describes over 4,800 nonfiction books and articles on all aspects of male homosexuality and lesbianism. He has arranged the annotated entries in 150 subject categories encompassing historical studies, literature and the arts, philosophy and religion, sociology, politics, psychology, law, medicine, and many other disciplines. It is indexed by subject and author.

The Horn Book Magazine: About Children's Books and Reading. Anita Silvey, ed. Boston, MA: Horn Book, Inc. 6 issues/yr. $30.00/yr. (0018-5078)

This publication reviews children's books and has a section for teen books. It includes audiovisual items.

Horror Literature: A Core Collection and Reference Guide. Marshall B. Tymn. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1981. 559p. $24.95. (0-8352-1405-2)

This book annotates more than 1,300 titles pertaining to horror stories.

How to Capture Live Authors and Bring Them to Your Schools. David Melton. Kansas City, MO: Landmark Editions, 1986. 93p. $12.95. (0-933849-03-6)

This book provides information on how to secure an author for a school program. The eleven chapters describe four basic types of author-related programs.

How-To: 1,200 Best Books on Doing Almost Anything. Bill Katz and Linda Sternberg Katz. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1984. 225p. $29.95. (0-8352-1927-5)

This book classifies titles by topic, and evaluates them for usefulness and effectiveness. Each entry includes author, title, publisher, date, pages, price and the Dewey Decimal System number. The book includes cross-references and an author/title index.

Improving Instruction with Microcomputers: Readings and Resources for Elementary and Secondary Schools. John H. Tashner. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1984. 255p. $26.50. (0-89774-095-5)

This collection of articles describes the development of the microchip and its impact on education, the need for computer literacy programs and the hardware required, and educational software and its application in the classroom and in school management. It includes guidelines for evaluating software and describes applications in reading, biology, English, social studies, special education, music, attendance, library, and financial management.

Index to Children's Plays in Collections. Beverly Robin Trefny and Eileen Palmer, ed. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 124p. $15.00. (0-8108-1892-0)

This volume updates and expands the two previous editions of collected plays. It includes skits, monologs, one-act plays, pantomimes, puppetry, and variety programs published between 1975 and 1984.

Index to Vocational and Technical Education (Multi-Media), 4th ed. National Information Center for Educational Media. Los Angeles: University of Southern California, 1981. 871p. $55.00. (0-8932-0039-5)

This guide lists a wide range of technical vocational subjects in many different formats.

Industrial Education. Paul K. Cuneo, ed. Troy, MI: Cummings Publishing Co. 10 issues/yr. $14.00/yr. (0091-8601)

This guide provides short articles, books, textbooks, and audiovisual materials.

Information America: Sources of Print and Nonprint Materials from Organizations, Industry, Government Agencies and Specialized Publishers. Tracy Davis. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1985. 815p. $110.00. (0-918212-79-0)

This guide lists 2,500 entries of books, pamphlets, periodicals, films, audiodiscs, audiocassettes, filmstrips, videocassettes, posters, maps, charts, slide sets, and multimedia kits. It includes a subject index, and index to periodicals, and a listing of the organizations.

Instruction in School Library Media Center Use (K-12) 2nd ed. Thomas L. Hart. Chicago: American Library Association, 1985. 431p. $12.50.

This guide focuses on the teaching of library skills and encourages media center use.

Instructor. Dansville, NY: Charles M. Gibson, Jr. Monthly, except June and July, $18.00/yr.

This publication evaluates films and other instructional materials and articles of interest to elementary school teachers.

The International Directory of Gay and Lesbian Periodicals. H. Robert Mallinowsky. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1987. 240p. $55.00. (0-89774-297-4)

This compilation of more than 2,000 publications contains a subject/geographic index listing the publications by county, state, and city and a publisher/editor index. Entries give publishing frequency, circulation, subscription and advertising rates, a description, and other information.

Integrating Library Media Skills Into the Reading Program K-6. 2 Vols. Retta Patrick. Littleton, CO: Hi Willow Research and Publishing, 1987. $150.00. (0-9315023-6) (Distributed by Libraries Unlimited)

This book describes integrating library skills with Houghton Mifflin's reading series, 1983 edition. The lessons, patterns, bibliographies, and teaching outlines follow the stories in the text series.

Intellectual Freedom for Children: A Packet of Materials. Association for Library Service to Children. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. $6.50.

A packet of materials detailing suggestions for programs, sample response letters for complaints, ALA Policy statements, and brochures on intellectual freedom.

Interracial Books for Children Bulletin. New York: Council on Interracial Books for Children. 8 issues/yr. $15.00/yr.

This periodical contains reviews and articles on materials dealing with all minority groups including women, older people, and the handicapped.

Journal of Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. Washington, DC: American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. 12 issues /yr. $35.00/yr.

This journal reviews books on recreation and dance.

Journal of Reading. Newark, DE: 9 issues/yr. $25.00/yr.

This publication provides reports on ERIC/RCS materials and reviews of instructional methods.

Junior High School Library Catalog, 5th ed. Richard H. Isaacson, ed. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1985. 835p. $80.00. (0-8242-0720-3)

This guide of 3,500 titles for junior high schools is arranged according to the Dewey Decimal System, with full cataloging information and annotations. It includes an author, subject, title, and analytical index.

The Junior High School Paperback Collection. John T. Gillespie. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 238p. $17.50. (0-8389-0420-X)

This resource list of 2,833 paperback books is recommended for grades seven to nine. It includes fiction and nonfiction arranged into interest categories and with an author-title index.

Juniorplots 3: A Guide for Teachers and Librarians. John T. Gillespie. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 310p. (08352-2367-1)

This edition summarizes 80 contemporary, fiction, and nonfiction titles, with a variety of themes and reading levels. All books are arranged by genre and indexed by the developmental goals around which Juniorplots is structured. Author-Title Index is included.

Keep Watching the Skies! American Science Fiction Movies of the Fifties, Vol. II. Bill Warren. Jefferson, NC: McFarland, 1986. 839p. $39.95. (0-89950-170-2)

This book reviews more than 150 science fiction movies. Each film's plot is outlined and its values and special effects described.

Kirkus Reviews, Juvenile Section. New York: Kirkus Service. Semimonthly. $70.00/yr.

This periodical reviews about 2,400 books—from children's picture books to adult books—suggested for young adult consideration.

Kister's Atlas Buying Guide: General English Language World Atlases Available in North America. Kenneth F. Kister. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1984. 252p. $43.00. (0-912700-62-9)

This guide provides information on maps and atlases.

Kliatt Young Paperback Book Guide: An Annotated List of Current Paperback Books for Young Adults. Hiatt and Claire Rosser, ed. Newton, MA: The Guide. 8 issues/yr. $27/yr. (0199-2376)

This magazine reviews over 250 titles recommended for ages 12–19. A code indicates the reading level, the size of print, and the difficulty of the vocabulary. It includes professional materials.

The Korbin Letter. Beverly Korbin, ed. Palo Alto, CA: Beverly Korbin. 8 issues/yr. $12.00/yr. (0271-990)

This newsletter reviews nonfiction books on several topics selected by the editor.

The Lady Laureates: Women Who Have Won the Nobel Prize, 2nd ed. Olga S. Opfell. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 334p. $27.50. (0-81080-1851-5)

This book provides information on the lives and achievements of the 20 women who have won the Nobel Prize. It includes a selected bibliography, time lines for the years 1933–1984, and an index.

Language Arts. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English. 8 issues/yr. $30.00/yr. (0360-9170)

This publication reviews books in Language Arts.

Large Type Books in Print 1985. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 400p. $66.45. (0-8352-2047-8)

This book contains a list of over 6,100 large-type books, periodicals, and newspapers for the visually impaired. Under two main headings—General Reading and Textbooks—it lists entries by subject, with author and title cross-indexes. Also included is a directory of agencies serving the blind. The book is printed in large type.

Latinos in the United States: A Historical Bibliography. Albert Camarillo, ed. Santa Barbara, CA: ABC/CLIO, 1987. 332p. $32.50. (0-87436-458-2)

This annotated list describes 1,382 journal articles published between 1973 and 1985 on Mexican Americans, Puerto Ricans, Cuban Americans, and other peoples of Spanish origin in the United States. It is arranged under four topical chapters devoted to general works: colonization and settlement up to 1848; people from Mexico; and people from the Caribbean, Central America, and South America.

Learning Differences-Library Directions: A Packet of Materials for Professionals who Work with Children with Learning Disabilities. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, Association for Library Service to Children, 1986. $9.95.

This packet contains pamphlets and bibliographies for use with the learning disabled.

Let's Read Together: Books for Family Enjoyment. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1981. 111p. $5.00. (0-8389-3253-3)

A list of 700 read-together stories for children, preschool through age 13.

Librarians' Guide: Young Adult Paperbacks. Mary K. Chelton. New York: New American Library, 1982. 47p. Free.

This book contains information on the reading preferences of young adults, information about ordering and processing paperbacks, a bibliography of review sources, and a list of paperbacks recommended for young adults.

Libraries, Technology and the Information Marketplace. Richard DeGennaro. Boston: G.K. Hall, 1987. 432p. $28.50. (0-8161-1869-887-758)

This book describes the library world's changing attitude toward such issues as relations between librarians and publishers, networking and resource sharing, and library management.

Library Automation for Library Technicians: An Introduction. Joan I. Tracy. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 163p. $16.00 (0-8108-1865-5)

This book covers the place of libraries in society: the basic principles of library automation and of computers: and the automated functions of acquisition, cataloguing and processing, serials control, circulation, user services, and support functions.

Library Automation: Issues and Applications. Dennis Reynolds. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 615p. $42.50. (0-8352-1489-3)

The guide provides information on online public catalogs, information retrieval systems, and interlibrary lending.

Library Journal. New York: R.R. Bowker, 22 issues/yr. $64.00. (0363-0027)

This publication reviews adult, children, and young adult books, magazines, recordings, and AV materials.

The Library Media Program and the School. D. Philip Baker. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 186p. $19.50. (0-87287-385-4)

This book describes the functions of school librarians; the organization and management of the program; instruction, supervision and evaluation; facilities; collection development; the budget process; technology; public relations; special constituencies; and contemporary issues.

Library Media Projects for the Gifted. M. Ellen Jay. Hamden, CT: Library Professional Publications, 1982. 138p. $16.50. (0-208-01940-5)

This book describes library activities for the gifted student.

Library Media Skills and the Senior High School English Program. Mary Hackman. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 120p. $23.50. (0-87287-419-2)

Suggestions as to how the school library media specialist and the English teacher can plan together to integrate the teaching of library skills into the English program are offered. This book provides examples of integrated courses, lesson plans and handouts, and an agenda for meeting with the director of the school English program.

Library Media Skills: Strategies for Instructing Primary Students. Alice R. Seaver. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 147p. $18.50. (0-87287-409-5)

This book discusses several types of media skills, identifies specific objectives to be taught, and explains methods to reach those objectives. Topics include grouping considerations for instruction, rewarding student achievements and accomplishments, enriching literature and evaluating learning.

Library Service to the Deaf and Hearing Impaired. Phylis I. Dalton. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1985. 371p. $39.50. (0-89774-135-8)

The author provides an indepth look at how to establish, run, and evaluate services for the hearing impaired. The book includes detailed bibliographies and appendices.

Library Services for Hispanic Children: A Guide for Public and School Libraries. Adela A. Allen, ed. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1987. 208p. $30.00. (0-89774-371-7)

This book provides essays on the evolution of educational services to the Spanish-speaking community and on the socio-cultural dynamics of the Hispanic child. It examines the management of programs and services, suggests guidelines for selections and acquisition, and provides an English-Spanish list of library-related terms. Five annotated bibliographies on English-language books about Hispanics, recent children's books in Spanish, bilingual nonprint materials, computer software for Spanish-speaking students, and resources on Hispanic culture for librarians are included.

Library Space Planning: How to Assess, Allocate, and Reorganize Resources and Physical Facilities. Ruth A. Fraley and Carol Lee Anderson. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1985. 158p. $37.50. (0-91812-44-8)

The book details planning and executing changes in a library facility. It presents information on strategies for moving the library from one facility to another.

Libros En Espanol: An Annotated List of Children's Books in Spanish. New York: New York Public Library, 1986. 52p. $3.00. (0-87104-628-8)

This guide provides books in nine categories, from picture books to books for older children. Complete bibliographic information is provided in both Spanish and English.

Literature for Today's Young Adults, 2nd ed. Allen Pace Nilsen and Kenneth Donelson. Glenview, IL: Scott, Foresman, 1985. 661p. $18.95. (0-673-15933-7)

This basic text lists young adult literature, including bibliographies that may serve as core collection guides.

Magazines: A Bibliography for Their Analysis, with Annotations and Study Guide. Fred K. Paine and Nancy E. Paine. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1987. 698p. $62.50. (0-8108-1975-9)

Approximately 2,200 books, articles, dissertations, specific magazines and the magazine industry are divided into 31 sections. A final section deals with specific types of magazines, including women's, men's, business, politics, and other special interests. It is indexed by title and subject.

Magazines for Children: A Guide for Parents, Teachers and Librarians. Selma K. Richardson. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1983. 147p. $12.50. (0-8389-0392-4)

A list of 90 magazines intended for students up to eighth grade.

Magazines for Libraries, 5th ed. Bill Katz and Linda S. Katz. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1986. 958p. $95.00. (0-8352-2217-9)

This volume covers more than 6,500 titles. Each entry provides descriptive and critical annotations of editorial content, point of view, and other features. A complete subject and title index is included.

Magazines for School Libraries. Bill Katz. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 256p. $39.95. (0-8352-2316-7)

This directory focuses on magazine acquisition for elementary school and junior and senor high school students. Arranged by subject headings, it evaluates some 1,200 magazines. Each entry gives descriptive and critical annotations of editorial content, point of view, and other significant features.

Magazines for Young Adults: Selections for School and Public Libraries. Selma K. Richardson: Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 464p. $22.50. (0-08389-0407-6)

This guide annotates about 500 periodicals appropriate for adolescents in grades seven through twelve. The annotations identify the target audience, the scope, subject emphasis, overall tone, writing style, and general design of the magazine. Ordering information is provided together with publication frequency, annual subscription cost, and indexing information.

Materials for Occupational Education: An Annotated Source Guide, 2nd ed. Patricia G. Schuman et al. New York: Neal Schuman, 1983. 384p. $35.00. (0-9182-1217-0)

This publication lists 700 sources of curriculum and training materials from professional and trade associations, government agencies, and private business in the form of pamphlets, books, slides, films, records, and newsletters.

Mathematics Teacher: Journal of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics. Harry B. Tunis. Reston, VA: National Council of Teachers of Mathematics. 8 issues/yr. $15.00/yr. (0025-5769)

This publication reviews textbooks and educational materials.

Media and Methods. Ann Caputo, ed. Philadelphia: American Society of Educators. 9 issues/yr. $24.00/yr. (0025-6897)

This publication provides audiovisual materials for secondary school students. It includes "how-to" articles, materials, hardware reviews, and bibliographies on selected subjects.

Media Center Management with an Apple II. Janet N. Naumer. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 236p. $19.50. (0-87287-392-7)

This handbook offers a hands-on approach for establishing a media center management system with a microcomputer. Divided into four major sections, this guide discusses designing a management system and using database management programs, statistical programs, and word processing programs.

Media Review Digest. Edward Wall, ed. Ann Arbor, MI: Pierian Press. $28.00/yr.

This publication is arranged into four divisions, with each section in alphabetical order by title. It annotates films, filmstrips, records and tapes.

Media Selection Handbook. Mary R. Sive. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 171p. $22.50. (0-8728-7350-1)

This book contains selection tools for nonprint materials.

Media Skills for Middle Schools: Strategies for Library Media Specialists and Teachers. Lucille M. VanVliet. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 263p. $19.50. (0-87287-410-9)

This volume describes the role of the teacher and school library media specialist, strategies for cooperative planning, and strategies for teaching and evaluating information skills. It contains lesson plans on a variety of skills and concepts.

Media Skills Puzzlers. Ruth Toor and Hilda K. Weisburg. Berkeley Heights, NJ: Library Learning Resources, 1984. 126p. $17.00. (0-931315-00-X)

This book provides 66 puzzles designed to teach and reinforce media skills while stimulating the interest of students (grades two through ten) in information skills and recreational reading.

The Media Specialists, the Microcomputer, and the Curriculum. Joanne Troutner. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 197p. $19.50. (0-87287-367-6)

This guide provides techniques for implementing a microcomputer program in schools and library media centers.

Merlin's Magic: A Reading Activities Book for Use with Children. Carol Thomas. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1984. 86p. $12.50.

Ideas on how to think and how to link books with stories, crafts, games, records, films, and decoration are discussed.

The Microcomputer Facility and the School Library Media Specialist. Blanche E. Woolls and David C. Loertscher, eds. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 200p. $15.00. (0-8389-3325-4)

The book explains the importance of initiating, maintaining, and expanding microcomputer use in elementary and secondary schools.

Microcomputer Information for School Media Centers. Nevada Wallis Thomason. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 316p. $25.00. (0-8108-1769-1)

The guide provides a series of articles from a variety of sources about microcomputer applications in school media centers. The appendices contain selection criteria for both hardware and software.

Microcomputer Spreadsheet Models for Libraries: Preparing Documents, Budgets, and Statistical Reports. Philip M. Clark. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 118p. $30.00. (0-8389-0403-3)

The text focuses on spreadsheets for library media specialists. It introduces spreadsheets and their specific applications for budgets, library activities, for collection evaluation, as output measures tools, and statistical analyses. Accessing different spreadsheet models and warm-up exercises are also covered.

Microcomputers: A Planning and Implementation Guide for Librarians and Information Professionals. Robert A. Walton. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1983. $22.50. (0-89774-097-1)

Divided into three sections, this book contains detailed descriptions of the various components of a microcomputer, of various types of software programs, and selecting a microcomputer system.

Microcomputers and Libraries: A Bibliographic Sourcebook. Thomas L. Kilpatrick. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1987. 738p. $49.50. (0-8108-1977-5)

This annotated bibliography of books and articles contains 3,700 entries on microcomputer selection, implementation, applications, and management. Included are references to reviews of microcomputer software, hardware, books, and serials.

Microcomputers in School Library Media Centers. Inabeth Miller. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1984. 165p. $19.95. (0-918212-51-0)

This book provides an overview of the role of microcomputers in school library media centers.

Microsource: Where to Find Answers to Questions About Microcomputers. Sayre Van Young. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 220p. $22.50. (0-87287-527-X)

This guide lists resources available to answer microcomputer-related questions posed by students and teachers. It describes about 500 sources including guides, books, periodicals, online sources, and pamphlets. Full bibliographic information accompanies each entry.

More Literature Puzzles for Elementary and Middle Schools. Carol J. Veitch and Jane Crawford. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 90p. $15.50. (0065-9959-518-0)

This book is designed to supplement the upper elementary school and junior high school literature programs with creative activities that build enthusiasm for reading. It provides enrichment activities for 25 popular children's books, representing a wide range of Newbery Award winners and runners-up and classic titles from children's literature.

More Notes from a Different Drummer: A Guide to Juvenile Fiction Portraying the Disabled. Barbara H. Baskin and Karen H. Harris, eds. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1984. 495p. $35.00. (0-8352-1871-6)

This list of annotated books describes disabilities, how they are treated, what attitudes are revealed and provides reading level designations and relationship to curriculum.

Motivating Children and Young Adults to Read. James L. Thomas and Ruth M. Loring. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1983. 112p. $30.00. (0-89774-046-7)

This book provides articles describing practical ideas for motivating students to read. An annotated bibliography is included, featuring a large selection of books that cover specific reading techniques and other sources of information.

Mudluscious: Stories and Activities Featuring Food for Preschool Children. Jan Irving and Robin Currie. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 259p. $19.50. (0-87287-517-2)

This book is arranged into twelve topical chapters, each dealing with a special type of food or food-related experiences such as "Breakfast," "Lunch," and "Magic Pots Cooking Round the World." Within each chapter information is grouped into the following categories: introduction, related activities, literature sharing, games and frolics, craft experiences, cooking and tasting experiences.

A Multimedia Approach to Children's Literature: A Selective List of Films, Filmstrips, Recordings, and Videocassettes Based on Children's Books, 3rd ed. Mary Hunt, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1983. 182p. $20.00. (0-8389-3289-4)

This book lists for grades kindergarten to six books and stories that are also available in nonprint formats. Books and their corresponding films/videocassettes, filmstrips, and recordings are listed. Programming ideas, a bibliography of AV selection tools and information about authors and illustrators are included.

The Museum of Science and Industry Basic List of Children's Science Books, 1986. Bernice Richter and Duane Wenzel, comps. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 80p. $6.95. (0-8389-0465-3)

This guide provides information on 1,400 books for grades K-12 with a special emphasis on elementary and junior high school levels. Each entry contains complete bibliographic description, a summary of the general content, the reading level, a symbol that indicates the book's usefulness, and citations to further reviews.

Mystery Index: Subjects, Settings, and Sleuths of 10,000 Titles. Steven Olderr. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 506p. $29.95. (0-8389-0461-0)

This book provides a list of mysteries that includes author, publisher, and publication date.

Name That Book! Janet Greeson and Karen Taha. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 258p. $19.50. (0-8108-1908-2)

This volume of "questions and answers on outstanding children's books" features book titles for primary, fourth, fifth, sixth, and junior/middle school grades. The titles are subdivided into easier and advanced reading categories. Titles chosen are Newbery and Caldecott winners and honor books. Author, title, and subject indexes are included.

The National Storytelling Journal. Jill Orendine, ed. Jonesborough, TN: National Association for the Perpetuation of Storytelling. $20.00/yr.

Each issue contains reviews of books with an emphasis on their storytelling possibilities, practical information on copyright and storytelling, and glimpses into various oral cultures.

The New Hooked on Books. Daniel Fader. New York: Berkley, 1981. 294p. $2.75. (0-4250-5473-X)

This guide offers a reading list to be used with reluctant readers. It covers the teaching of writing through reading. The appendices include sample lessons for reading with trade books and a bibliography of professional readings.

New Technical Books: A Selective List with Descriptive Annotations. Dr. Bruce Manzer. ed. New York: New York Public Library. 10 issues/yr. $15.00/yr. (0028-6869)

This publication focuses on applied science and industrial technology and lists books mainly of interest to the technical educator.

Notable Children's Books 1976–1980. Association for Library Service to Children. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 70p. $6.95. (0-8389-3333-5)

This guide is a cumulative edition of the re-evaluated popular reading lists published annually by the Association for Library Service to Children.

Notable Children's Films, Filmstrips, and Recordings, 1986. Film, Filmstrip, and Recording Evaluation Committees. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, Association for Library Service to Children, 1986. 5p. Single copy free. (8389-7022-2)

Each list provides selective films, filmstrips, and recordings for students through age 14.

Notable Children's Trade Books in the Field of Social Studies. National Council for the Social Studies. Washington, DC: The Council, 1986. 11p. Single Copy Free.

Brief annotations are given for elementary and middle school.

Notes From a Different Drummer: A Guide to Juvenile Fiction Portraying the Handicapped. Barbara H. Baskin and Karen H. Harris. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1984. 408p. $27.50. (0-8352-1871-6)

This guide evaluates over 400 titles for grades kindergarten to twelve. The annotations focus on literary qualities as well as on information about how the handicap is handled.

Novel Verdicts: A Guide to Courtroom Fiction. Jon L. Breen. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1984. 266p. $18.50. (0-8108-1741-1)

This guide to literature "having part of the narrative devoted to a trial or courtroom scene" contains complete bibliographic information and a synopsis for 421 titles.

The Nuclear Arms Race: A Digest with Bibliographies. William C. Gay and Michael A. Person. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 300p. $29.95. (0-8389-0467-X)

The authors describe the nuclear arms race and the global militarization surrounding it. This book provides an annotated bibliography on the topic.

Off-Air Videotaping in Education: Copyright Issues, Decisions, Implications. Esther R. Sinofsky. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1984. 163p. $27.50.

This book covers various aspects of videotaping off-the-air for educational use.

Off the Wall: The Art of Book Display. Alan Heath. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 153p. $19.50. (0-87287-578-4)

This manual provides ideas and advice on how to create displays for libraries from simple, readily available materials. Special ideas are presented for holiday themes and a section geared to exhibits of materials in specific interest areas is provided.

On Being Black: A Selected List of Books, Films, Filmstrips, Recordings for Young Adults. Office of Children's Services. New York: New York Public Library, The Office of Branch Libraries, 1985. 19p. $3.00.

This is a list of annotated media on the black experience. It contains a directory of sources.

On This Day: A Collection of Everyday Learning Events and Activities for the Media Center, Library and Classroom. Elaine J. Haglund and Marcia L. Harris. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 470p. $19.50.

This chronologically arranged book presents ideas for lessons by the month, week, or day. The second part of the book called the "Extra Know-How Section," includes sample forms for activities. Task cards, reproducible puzzles, surveys, and several appendices complete the book.

Once Upon . . . A Time for Young People and Their Books: An Annotated Resource Guide. Rita Kohn. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1986. 219p. $19.50. (0-8108-1922-8)

This volume lists print and nonprint resource materials including the broad genres of fiction, nonfiction, dramatic literature, and poetry. Available aids such as bibliographies, lists, guides, indexes, and reviewing instruments are included.

101 Software Packages to Use in Your Library: Descriptions, Evaluations, Practical Advice. Patrick Dewey. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 168p. $17.95. (0-8389-0455-6)

The 101 software packages are specifically for library use. The vendor, price, hardware requirements, related programs, and additional sources of information are included.

One Hundred Titles for Reading and Sharing. Office of Children's Services. New York: New York Public Library, Office of Branch Libraries, 1987. $2.00.

This bibliography recommends books, records, and computer programs.

Only the Best: Discriminating Software Guide for Preschool—Grade 12. Linda L. Mattas. Carmichael, CA: Education News Service, 1986. 128p. $19.95. (0-9364-2300-5)

This guide identifies 281 computer programs that received a minimum of two excellent ratings from 22 different evaluation services.

Our Constitution: 200 Years. New York: Children's Book Council, 1987. 5p. Free.

This is an annotated list of titles on the subject of the Constitution, the founding fathers, and the birth of the republic.

Outstanding Books for the College Bound. Mary A. Paulin and Susan T. Berlin. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 92p. $5.95. (0-8389-3302-5)

The annotated list of 600 books provides brief annotations and bibliographic information.

Outstanding Science Trade Books for Children. Washington, DC: National Science Teachers Association, 1986. 2p. Single copy free.

Brief annotations are given on books for elementary and middle school.

Paperback Books for Children Through Age 12. Child Study Children's Book Committee. New York: Bank Street College, 1987. $10.00

This is a list of paperback books for the elementary student.

Paperbound Books in Print. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 5,600p. $119.95. (0-8352-2328-0)

This guide identifies paperback titles. It is arranged by author, title, and subject. A publishers/distributors guide provides contact information for over 12,000 companies.

Parent/Teacher's Microcomputing Sourcebook for Children. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 500p. $19.95. (0-8352-1959-3)

This guide provides lists of hardware, peripherals, and software and lists books and magazines on microcomputing.

Parents as Sexuality Educators: An Annotated Print and Nonprint Audiovisual Bibliography for Professionals and Parents (1970–1984). Susan Snyder and Sol Gordon. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1984. 168p. $29.50. (0-89774-087-4)

Print and nonprint audiovisual materials for professionals and parents are listed. Includes both materials on general sexuality and those dealing with special situations such as divorce, disabled children, and adolescence.

A Parent's Guide to Children's Reading, 5th ed. Nancy Larrick. Philadelphia: Westminster, 1983. 271p. $12.95. (0-664-327052)

This annotated bibliography of titles is arranged by subject.

Picture Book Story Hours: From Birthdays to Bears. Paula Gaj Sitarz. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 190p. $18.50. (0-87287-556-3)

This guide provides material for 22 story hours and a step-by-step child-tested program. The stories are presented around a variety of themes, such as farms, ghosts, teddy bears, giants, magic, and music.

Picture Books for Children. Patricia J. Cianciolo. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1981. 254p. $12.50. (0-8389-035-0)

This book list provides 550 annotated picture books for parents, librarians, and teachers.

Picture Books for Gifted Programs. Nancy Polette. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1981. 228p. $12.50. (0-8108-1461-7)

This guide lists picture books that stimulate gifted children.

Picture Researcher's Handbook: An International Guide to Picture Sources and How to Use Them. Hilary Evans. New York: Scribners, 1974. 365p. $15.00. (0684-14133-7)

This book provides procedures for selecting pictures and a list of sources for purchasing them.

Piggyback Songs: New Songs Sung to the Tune of Childhood Favorites. Joan Warren. Mt. Rainier, MD: Totline Press, 1985. 65p. $4.95.

This book provides 110 easy-to-sing songs about the seasons, holidays, school experiences, and self for toddlers and preschool programs.

Pocketful of Puppets: Never Pick a Python for a Pet and Other Animal Poems. Tamara Hunt. Austin, TX: Renfro Studios, 1985. 80p. $7.50. (0-931044-14-6)

This collection provides animal poems and classroom/storytime-related puppet activities. The poems describe animals from many different environments including the African plains, the oceans, and the polar regions. Suggestions for introducing the poems, for using puppets, and for involving children in making and using puppets are included.

Poetry Anthologies for Children and Young People. Marycile E. Olexer. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 288p. $40.00. (0-8389-0430-3)

This book features over 100 poetry anthologies.

Popular Reading for Children II: A Collection of Booklist Columns. Barbara Elleman, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 88p. $5.00. (0-8389-3330-0)

This source identifies titles by subject. It includes genres frequently requested by children, such as adventure stories, horse stories, humor, mystery, science fiction, and self-adjustment stories.

Presenting Reader's Theater: Plays and Poems to Read Aloud. Caroline F. Bauer. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1987. 250p. $35.00. (0-8242-0748-3)

The author presents 56 ready-to-use programs using a wide variety of stories, folktales, and contemporary classics. The book offers 26 short plays and 30 poems geared toward 7 to 12-year-olds in easy-to-read, large-type format.

Programming for School-Age Child Care: A Children's Literature Based Guide. Melba Hawkins. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 200p. $23.50. (0065-9959-555-5)

This guide provides titles from children's literature and uses them as a basis for experiences in arts and crafts, music, creative dramatics, and cooking. It is divided into five sections in which objectives are outlined and techniques for using the suggested activities are explained. An annotated bibliography of resources as well as author/illustrator, title, and subject indexes are included.

Promoting World Understanding Through Literature, K-8. Mary Austin and Esther Jenkins. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 300p. $22.50. (0-87287-356-0)

This annotated guide offers children's literature related to various ethnic groups in the United States. There is a glossary and a set of criteria for selecting multi-ethnic books.

Puberty, Pregnancy, and Parenting: Teen Sex and Sexuality. American Library Association, Chicago, IL: The Association, 1986. Single copy free.

This annotated listing includes books and audiovisual materials for and about young people experiencing the physical, social, and emotional aspects of sexuality.

Puppet Shows Made Easy! Nancy Renfro. Austin, TX: Nancy Renfro Studios, 1984. 112p. $9.95. (0-931044-13-8)

This book provides ideas on how to decide on a story; how to write a script; how to build puppets, sets, and props; how to rehearse and stage a show; and how to plan the performance.

Rainbows and Ice Cream: Storytimes About Things Kids Like. Carol Elbert and Robin Currie. Des Moines, IA: Iowa Library Association, 1983. 65p. $5.50.

This bibliography provides 31 storytime programs for toddlers and preschoolers.

The Read-Aloud Handbook. Jim Trelease. New York: Penguin Books, 1986. 240p. $6.95. (0-14-0467270-0)

The author provides a list of read-aloud picture books, fairy tales, short novels, novels, volumes of poetry, and anthologies.

The Reader's Guide to Microcomputer Books, 2nd ed. Michael Nicita and Ronald Petrusha. Brooklyn, NY: Golden-Lee Book, 1984. 473p. $29.95. (0-8672-9122-2)

This guide lists 400 titles that are reviewed and rated by the authors.

Reading Aloud with Children Through Age 8. Child Study Children's Book Committee. New York: Bank Street College, 1985. 20p. $4.00.

This guide annotates 400 titles appropriate for reading aloud including fact and fiction, stories, and poetry.

The Reading Consultant/Library Media Specialist Team: Building the Reading Habit. Emma Lou Benedict and Darla Shaw. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1987. 250p. $27.50. (0-208-02102-7)

Divided into four parts, the book presents the program and tells how it build the skills students need in reading and in information gathering, discusses developing motivations to read and explores community involvement in the program. It includes a bibliography.

Reading for the Fun of It: A Guide to Books for Children with Learning Disabilities. Judith Rovenger. Elmsford, NY: Westchester Library System, 1986. 32p. $3.50.

This book contains selection strategies and ways to draw children with reading difficulties into the world of books. An annotated listing of materials of all ages is included.

Reading for Young People: Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia. Barbara Mertins, ed. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 157p. $15.00. (0-8389-0426-2)

This annotated list of more than three hundred books selected by teachers and librarians from three states includes a directory of regional publishers.

Reading Ladders for Human Relations. 6th ed. Eileen Tway. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1981. 398p. $9.95. (0-8268-1414-X)

This book features five thematic ladders organized according to reader maturity, from preschool through high school.

Reading Teacher. Newark, DE: International Reading Association. 9 issues/yr. $24.00/yr.

This periodical provides reports on ERIC/RCS materials of instructional materials.

Ready for Reference: Media Skills for Intermediate Students. Barbara Bradley Ziotnick. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 290p. (0-87287-411-7)

This book describes a research, study, and information skills program that integrates media skills and subject skills instruction. It includes reproducible activity worksheets, pretests, and postests, as well as developmental skills activities and teaching plans.

Ready, Set, Read: Best Books To Prepare Preschoolers. Ellen Mahoney and Leah Wilcox. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985.348p. $19.50. (0-8108-1684-9)

This book is designed to help school library media specialists, teachers, and parents introduce books to preschool children. The authors discuss appropriate books for children at each developmental stage from babyhood to the beginning of formal school. Author, title, and subject indexes are included.

Recommended Books for Reluctant Young Adult Readers. Barbara Lynn. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 2p. $.30.

This list of titles is intended for the teenager that does not like to read. All titles on the list are sixth-grade reading level or below.

Recommended East Asian Core Collections for Children's, High School, Public, Community College and Undergraduate College Libraries. (ED110-021)

This bibliography of recommended library materials is intended to serve as a basic buying list for school library media centers seeking to develop holdings pertaining to China, Formosa, Japan, Korea, Mongolia, and Tibet. It includes books, periodicals, films, filmstrips, tapes, and phonograph records. The items are arranged geographically with topical subdivisions.

Recommended Reference Books for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries and Media Centers. Bohdan S. Wynar, ed. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 300p. $30.00. (0-87287-494-X)

This guide reviews over 550 titles chosen by the editor as the most valuable reference titles published during 1986.

Reference and Information Services: A Reader for Today. William Katz. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1987. 433p. $32.50. (0-8108-1873-6, 86-13122)

The author presents a representative view of the field of reference. The articles are grouped in sections such as the following "The Reference Process," "Ethics and Evaluation," "Access to Information," "Interview and Search," and "The Computer and Beyond."

Reference Books for Young Readers. Shirley A. Fitzgibbons, Brent Allison, and Rebecca L. Thomas, comps. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 560p. $49.95. (0-8352-2366-3)

The book evaluates encyclopedias, dictionaries, and atlases for K-12 students.

Reference Books in Special Media. Carol Keys, comp. Washington, DC: National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Library of Congress, 1983. 74p. Free.

This guide lists reference works arranged by subject and title, that are currently available in braille, cassette, disk, and large type from various sources.

A Reference Guide to Modern Fantasy for Children. Pat Pflieger. Westport, CT: Greenwood, 1984. 690p. $65.00. (0-313-22886-8)

This guide to 100 books of fantasy gives plot synopses, descriptions of characters, bibliographical information, themes, and major and minor characters.

Reference Services Today: From Interview to Burnout. Bill Katz and Ruth A. Fraley. New York: Haworth, 1987. 300p. $34.95. (0-86656-572-8)

The authors provide information on various aspects of reference service.

Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries. Ad Hoc Committee for the Fourth Edition of Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 252p. $20.00. (0-8389-3293-2)

This source identifies reference books that could be useful to high school students.

Reference Sources in Library and Information Services: A Guide to the Literature. Gary R. Purcell and Gail Ann Schlacter. Santa Barbara, CA: ABC/CLIO, 1984. 359p. $45.00. (0-87436-355-1)

About 1,500 entries cover library reference works, issues, developments, and institutions. The sources include bibliographies, glossaries, encyclopedias, yearbooks, and biographical directories. It is cross-referenced and indexed by title and author.

Reflections on Literature for Children. Francelia Butler and Richard Rotert, eds. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1984. 281p. $17.50. (0-208-0275-6)

This book has 26 articles grouped by the following topics: A note on story, some meanings in children's literature, poetry can say it best, and some extraordinary writers and their characters are discussed.

The Research Almanac. Nancy Polette. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1985. 140p. $14.95. (0-8108-1856-6)

This collection contains 270 short research projects for students in grades 4–8. It provides experiences in independent investigation for students who need such advanced work.

The Research Book for Gifted Programs K-8. Nancy Polette. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1984. 170p. $14.95. (0-8108-1857-4)

This book uses many sources to provide ready-to-use activities. A wide variety of thinking skills and methods for teaching research skills to gifted students are described.

Resources for Middle-Grade Reluctant Readers: A Guide for Librarians. Marianne L. Pilla. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 140p. $18.50. (0-87287-547-4, 87-3736)

This book describes the characteristics of reluctant readers and the reading interests of middle-grade students. It provides guidelines for selection, processing, and implementing of materials and includes an annotated bibliography of books, magazines, and software.

Resources for Youth Workers and Program Planners: An Annotated Bibliography. Sue Rosenzweig. Carrboro, NC: Center for Early Adolescence, 1986. 46p. $5.00.

A revised and expanded edition that identifies materials on appropriate programs for youth workers.

Resources on Parenting Young Adolescents. The Center for Early Adolescence. Carrboro, NC: The Center, 1984. $2.50.

More than 50 books, articles, and organizations dealing with parenting, early adolescent development, sexuality, and substance abuse are discussed.

The Riverside Anthology of Children's Literature, 6th edition. Judith Saltman, ed. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1985. 1,373p. $44.95. (0-395-35773-X)

This book presents an overview of children's literature from classical to contemporary. It contains sections on poetry, picture books, the oral tradition, fiction, nonfiction, and readings on children's literature.

The School Administrator's Guide to Evaluating Library Media Programs. Bernice L. Yesner and Hilda L. Jay. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1987. 236p. $19.50. (0-208-02148-5)

This book focuses on the evaluation of school library media programs and their integration into the school curriculum. It is made up of evaluations modules on topics such as access, atmosphere, budget, censorship, interviewing, volunteers, and weeding.

School Library and Media Center Acquisition Policies and Procedures. Betty Kemp, ed. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1987. 280p. $44.50. (0-89774-160-9)

The policies of 15 representative school districts are presented.

School Library Journal. Lillian Gerhardt, ed. New York: R.R. Bowker, 10 issues/yr. $51.00/yr. (0362-8930)

The School Library Journal reviews books for poor readers. Also published are reviews of paperbacks on teen romances, participation series titles, and Spanish books.

School Library Media Activities Monthly. Baltimore: LMS Associates. 10 issues/yr. $40.00/yr.

This periodical provides a variety of activities for elementary and junior high school media specialists to use in the school library media program. It contains a daily almanac of activities and special events, lesson plans, articles on the philosophy and practice of media skills instruction, media production techniques, computer applications, reviews, and annotated bibliographies.

School Library Media Center, 4th edition. Emanuel T. Prostano and Joyce S. Prostano. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 257p. $28.50. (0-87287-568-7)

This revised edition provides a new look at the purpose, structure, and function of the school library media center.

School Library Media Quarterly. Marilyn W. Greenberg, ed. Chicago, IL: American Association of School Librarians, 4 issues/yr. $20.00/yr. for nonmembers. (0278-48823)

This publication contains articles and reviews of software and professional books pertaining to library media.

School Library Media Skills Test and Manual. Anne M. Hyland. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 47p. $25.00. (0-87287-524-5)

This guide identifies five broad areas of tests for library skills arranged in hierarchical order. These areas are as follows: organization of the library, section of materials, skills required for using print and nonprint materials, comprehension and appreciation, and production/communication.

School Media Policy Development: Practical Process for Small Districts. Helen R. Adams. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 174p. $23.50.

This guide describes the process involved in formulating, adopting, implementing, and reviewing media policies. The handbook draws upon case studies and sample policies.

School Shop. Alan Jones, ed. Ann Arbor, MI: Prakken Publishers. 10 issues/yr. $15.00/yr. (0036-682X)

This periodical has articles for industrial/voc-tech teachers on audiovisual materials trade and textbooks. It includes a directory and pre-professional and paraprofessional occupations.

Science and Children. P.R. Marcuccio, ed. Washington, DC: National Science Teachers Association. 10 issues/yr. $18.00/yr. (0193-8148)

This publication listed "Outstanding Science Trade Books for Children" in its March issue.

Science Books and Films. K. Johnston, ed. Washington, DC: American Association for the Advancement of Science. 10 issues/yr. 5 issues/yr. $28.00/yr. (0098-342X)

This guide reviews trade books, textbooks, reference books, 16mm films, video and 35mm filmstrips for students and general audiences.

Science Books for Children: Selections from Booklist, 1976–1983. Denise M. Wilms, comp. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 183p. $15.00. (0-8389-3312-2)

This annotated list describes the 500 best trade science books for grades K-8 reading levels.

Science Fair Project Index 1973–1980s. Science and Technology Division, Akron-Summit County Public Library. Scarecrow Press, 1983. 729p. $47.50. (0-8108-1605-9)

This is a subject index to books and magazines that contain science projects and experiments. The focus is on projects, experiments, and techniques for the display of projects.

Science Teacher. Washington, DC: National Science Teachers Association. 12 issues/yr. $37.00/yr.

This publication reviews print and nonprint science materials for secondary school students and their teachers.

Scientific and Technical Books and Serials in Print, 1985, 3 Vols. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1984. $175.00. (0-8352-2362.0)

This book lists 115,000 books by author, title, and subject and lists 18,000 serials by subject and title.

Screening Educational Equity: A Filmography. The Mid-Atlantic Center for Race Equity. Washington, DC: School of Education, The American University, 1986. 20p. Free.

This is an annotated list of films, filmstrips, and video cassettes for classroom teaching and staff development on a variety of multicultural, educational, and equity issues.

A Selected Bibliography for the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution. Kay Roberts, comp. San Francisco: Bay Area Reference Center, San Francisco Public Library, 1987. 8p. Free.

This list is composed of titles pertaining to the Constitution.

Selected Jewish Picture Books: An Annotated Bibliography. Dr. Marcia Posner. New York: JWB Jewish Book Council, 1987. $3.00.

This annotated bibliography provides developmental levels for each title and recommends criteria for picture book selection.

Selected Videos and Films for Young Adults: 1975–1985. Young Adult Services Division. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. $5.95.

This list contains 200 films for young adults. It includes annotations, purchase and rental information, a subject index, programming suggestions, and a distributors list.

Selecting Educational Equipment and Materials for School and Home. Joan Moyer, ed. Wheaton, MD: Association for Childhood Education International, 1986. 68p. $8.58. (0-871783-111-8)

This revised edition updates relevant information and adds entries reflecting recent developments and trends that signify changes in educational equipment and materials.

Selecting Materials for and about Hispanic and East Asian Children and Young People. Patricia F. Beilke and Frank J. Sciara. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1986. 178p. $24.50. (0-208-01993-6)

This source covers developing collections and training personnel serving Filipino, Cuban, Mexican, Vietnamese, and Kampuchean children. It summarizes the history of the various Hispanic and East Asian subgroups in the United States and reviews criteria useful in selecting nonbiased books for minorities.

Selecting Materials for Children and Young Adults: A Bibliography of Bibliographies and Review Sources. The Association for Library Service to Children. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1980. 74p. $7.00. (0-8389-3241-X)

The recommendations in this book cover books and nonprint items published from 1979 to 1980. Curriculum areas, special needs, biographies, and career subjects are included.

Selection of Library Materials in Applied and Interdisciplinary Fields. Beth J. Shapiro and John Whaley, eds. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 352p. $42.00.

The document provides annotations for materials in such applied and interdisciplinary fields as agriculture, business and management, communication arts and sciences, criminal justice, education, engineering, environmental studies, geography and maps, health sciences, home economics, law, public administration, race and ethnic studies, the "radical left" and "radical right," social work, sports and recreation, urban planning, and women's studies.

Self-Help: 1,200 Best Books on Personal Growth. Bill Katz and Linda Sternberg Katz. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1985. 225p. $29.95. (0-8352-1939-9)

The authors list 1,200 titles on self-improvements including such areas as succeeding in business, staying healthy, and raising a child. Full bibliographic and ordering information is provided.

Senior High School Library Catalog, 13th ed. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1987. 1,200p.

Five thousand titles and supporting analytic entries are arranged in Dewey Decimal System order and bibliographic data. These titles cover censorship, computers, eating disorders, politics, and physical fitness. This edition lists an increased number of paperback books.

The Senior High School Paperback Collection. John T. Gillespie. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 424p. $30.00. (0-8389-0454-8)

This volume evaluates some 4,000 main entries, with additional titles mentioned in the annotations. There is a table of contents and an author-title index.

Sequences: An Annotated Guide to Children's Fiction In Series. Susan Roman. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 134p. $17.50. (0-8389-0428-9)

This bibliography recommends various genres of fiction by 125 authors in series and sequences, arranged alphabetically by author with titles in reading order from third grade to young adult. The annotation for each book includes publisher, date, and suggested reading level. It is indexed by character, book title, and series title.

Sex Education for Adolescents: A Bibliography of Low Cost Materials. American Academy of Pediatrics, American Library Association, and Planned Parenthood Federation. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1980. 32p. $3.00. (0-8389-3248-7)

This guide lists inexpensive materials on sexuality for junior and senior high school students.

Sex Guides: Books and Films about Sexuality for Young Adults. Patty Campbell. New York: Garland Publishing, 1987. 374p. $27.00. (0-8240-8693-7)

The author focuses on contemporary sex education materials including both books and films. She evaluates a selection of nonfiction titles, assessing both their responsiveness to their designated audience and the quality of their information on subjects such as masturbation, homosexuality, and birth control.

Shadow and Substance: Afro-American Experience in Contemporary Children's Fiction. Rudine Sims. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1982. $6.00

This guide analyzes Afro-American children in realistic fiction. It covers 159 books from preschool through grade 8.

Sharing the World's Magic: A Guide to Folk Literature for Children with Learning Differences. Elmsford, NY: Westchester Library System, 1987. 15p. $3.00.

This guide lists folk literature titles for use with children who have learning differences.

Short Stories on Film and Video. Carol A. Emmens. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 351p. $20.00. (0-87287-424-9)

This volume lists over 1,400 short stories produced between 1920 and 1984. Each entry provides the author's name, short story, and film titles, and a brief annotation. The author also notes whether the film is in color or black and white, the release date, the director and cost, the current distributor, and other source materials when available.

Showing Off: Display and Exhibit Ideas for Children's Library Services. Columbia, MO: Missouri Library Association, Executive Office, 1986. 70p. $5.00.

This book provides ideas for bulletin boards, free standing displays, shelf or display cases, and other display spaces. It is arranged by subject categories, including promotion by titles, authors, or series; crafts, hobbies or collections; as well as adapting generic ideas. A bibliography listing sources for free or low cost materials is provided.

Social Education. Washington, DC: National Council for the Social Studies, $25.00/yr.

This publication provides materials on social studies.

The Software Finder (A Guide to Educational Microcomputer Software for Apple II, Atari 400/800, Commodore Pet, CBM, Vic-20, 64, Radio Shack TRS-80 Models-III, Color Compiler and CP/M). Dresden, ME: Dresden Association, 1983. 157p. $25.00.

This publication provides a listing of school-oriented software.

Sixty-Plus: Seniors in Contemporary Fiction. Donald Putnam. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 36p. $5.00. (0-88802-188-7)

This book describes 80 novels and short story collections that treat problems and issues facing the elderly, such as changing family relationships, retirement, illness, and death.

66 Media Skills Puzzlers. Ruth Toor and Hilda Wersburg. Berkley Heights, NJ: Library Learning Resources, 1984. 126p. $17.00. (0-931315-00-X)

Pen and paper activities for elementary school classes arranged according to type. Topics range from dinosaurs to presidential nicknames.

The Special Ware Directory: A Guide to Software for Special Education. LINC Associates, comp. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1985. 160p. $19.50. (0-89774-192-7)

This guide describes microcomputer software for special education. It is arranged alphabetically by product title.

Sports: A Multimedia Guide for Children and Young Adults. Calvin Blickle and Frances Corcoran. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1980. 245p. $16.50. (0-8743-6283-0)

This book lists over 600 books, periodicals and audiovisual materials dealing with sports.

Steps to Service. Mildred L. Nickle. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 129p. $9.50. (0-8389-0387-8)

This revised edition explains changes in library technology, educational philosophy, and practice.

Stories to Draw. Jerry Mallet and Marian Bartch. Hagerstown, MD: Freline, Inc., 1982. 52p. $6.95.

This bibliography provides 16 stories to tell and draw and techniques for telling them.

Story Programs: A Source Book of Materials. Carolyn Sue Peterson and Brenny Hall. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1980. 294p. $15.00.

This book provides techniques for telling stories by using flannel board stories, physical activities, creative dramatics, and puppetry for the toddler, preschool, and primary levels. Patterns and scripts are included.

The Story Vine: A Source Book of Unusual and Easy-to-Tell Stories from Around the World. Anne Pellowski. New York: Macmillan, 1984. 116p. $14.95.

A source of string stories; picture-drawing stories; and stories using dolls, riddles, and musical instruments.

Storyteller's Sourcebook: A Subject, Title and Motif Index to Folklore Collections for Children. Margaret R. MacDonald. Neal-Schuman, Gale Research, 1982. 818p. $70.00. (0-8103-0471-6)

This guide indexes 556 folktales and 389 fiction books in a manner similar to Granger's Index to Poetry.

Storytelling Activities. Norma J. Livo and Sandra A. Rietz. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 140p. $15.50. (0-87287-566-0)

This book combines stories, songs, dances, games, ballads, and other play forms with art and research projects aimed at teaching language arts skills.

Storytelling: Art and Technique. Augusta Baker and Ellin Greene. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 200p. $24.95. (0-8352-2336-1)

This source contains practical storytelling techniques including planning the session, selecting materials, and learning and reciting the story. It describes profiles of storytellers and provides advice on planning storytelling workshops and festivals.

Storytelling: Process and Practice. Norma J. Livo and Sandra A. Rietz. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 462p. $25.00. (0-87287-443-5)

This guide provides examples of storytelling techniques and "how-to" information.

Storytelling with Puppets. Connie Champlin and Nancy Renfro. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1985. 293p. $19.95. (0-8389-0421-1)

This teacher's handbook on the use of puppets is divided into six parts: before the story, the puppets, roles of puppets, participatory storytelling, presentation formats, and after the story. An annotated lists of book titles accompany the various techniques discussed.

Storytime Science. Virginia Baeckler. Hopewell, NJ: Sources, 1987. 102p. $10.00. (0-9603232-2-8)

This book features 27 lesson plans incorporating simple science experiments into story hours. The appendices list selected science books for the elementary school level, supplies of print and nonprint materials, and museums specializing in hands-on science exhibits.

Storytimes for Two-Year-Olds. Judy Nichols. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 152p. $20.00. (0-8389-0451-3, 86-32151)

The author describes the benefits of storytimes for very young children: explains the elements of a successful story program; and gives a step-by-step run-through of a sample program, complete with books, fingerplays, music, and active dramatics. Appendices offer suggestions on constructing storytime materials, on how to "read a picture," and further reading.

Subject Guide to Children's Books In Print 1987–1988. New York: R.R. Bowker, 1987. 500p. $69.95. (0-8352-2252-6)

This guide offers subject access to both fiction and nonfiction books for young people.

Substance Abuse Materials for School Libraries: An Annotated Bibliography. Theodora Andrews. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1985. 225p. $22.50. (0-8728-7476-1)

This annotated list of 496 books describes materials on substance abuse aimed at the young adult.

Supernatural Fiction for Teens: 500 Good Paperbacks to Read for Wonderment, Fear, and Fun. Cosette Kies. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 135p. $16.50. (0-87287-602-0)

The author describes paperbacks on parapsychology and psychic phenomena; tales and legends with magical and occult elements; and horror, both traditional and modern. Anthologies are covered in a separate section. Appendices list books in series, books made into movies, and paperback publishers.

Supporting K-5 Reading Instruction in the School Library Media Center. Lea-Ruth C. Wilkins. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 142p. $12.50. (0-8389-0397-5)

This volume provides ideas for the teaching of reading.

Tales of Love and Terror: Booktalking the Classics, Old and New. Hazel Rochman. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 160p. $15.95. (0-8389-0463-7)

The author demonstrates how to promote the pleasure of reading through "booktalking." Additional titles are suggested for consideration.

Talking Book Topics. U.S. Library of Congress, Division for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Washington, DC: Bi-monthly. Free.

This guide lists books that are in a talking book format.

Teaching Library Media Skills: An Instructional Program for Elementary and Middle School Students, 2nd ed. H. Thomas Walker and Paula K. Montgomery. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1983. 207p. $19.50. (0-87287-365-X)

The new edition provides objectives and activities for complete school library media instruction.

Teaching the Library Research Process: A Step-by-Step Program for Secondary School Students. Carol Collier Kuhlthau. West Nyack, NY: The Center for Applied Research in Education, 1985. 190p. $22.95. (0-87628-804-2)

The author divides planning research projects into seven stages. She describes the cooperative roles of the teacher and the library media specialist in planning.

Technology Teacher. Wendy V. Williams, ed. Reston, VA: American Industrial Arts Association. 8 issues/yr. $20.00/yr. (0022-1813)

This publication provides book reviews and short articles of interest to secondary school industrial arts teachers. Notes on new media are provided.

TESS: The Education Software Selector. EPIE. Water Mill, NY: Educational Products Information Exchange, 1986. 800p. $59.95.

This guide describes over 7,500 software packages for all brands of computers. It tells where each package fits in the curriculum, what is needed to use it, the costs, and the producer. Entries are indexed by grade level, subject, and computer.

They All Want To Write: Written English in the Elementary School. By Alvina Treut Burrows et. al. Hamden, CT: Library Professional Publications, 1984. 238p. $16.00. paper (0-208-02043-8)

This book provides techniques for writing correctly. An eight-page annotated bibliography is included.

This Way to Books. Caroline Bauer. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1983. 376p. $35.00. (0-8242-0678-9)

This book provides ideas, activities, programs, and techniques that involve students in reading.

Those Bloomin' Books: A Handbook for Extending Thinking Skills. Carol Sue Kruise. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 217p. $17.50. (0-87287-548-2)

Books are used to expand the use of children's literature using the principles of Bloom's taxonomy to extend thinking levels. This handbook includes picture books, novels, and "beginning-to-read-books" for grades K-6. An appendix explains Bloom's taxonomy and the various levels of thinking.

Top of the News. Joni Bodart, ed., Chicago, IL: Association for Library Service to Children and Young Adult Services Division, American Library Association. 4 issues/yr. $25.00/yr. (0040-9286)

Each publication reviews professional materials.

Toys That Teach Your Child from Birth to Two. Athina Aston. Chester, CT: East Woods Press, 1984. 128p. $12.50. (0-88742-015-X)

This book explains the child's growth from newborn to two years. It is divided into three month segments in which the physical, emotional, and intellectual stages of development are described. The various kinds of play appropriate to each developmental stage are outlined. For each kind of play, toys and activities are recommended and well known and readily available brand-name toys are suggested.

Triumphs of the Spirit in Children's Literature. Francelia Butler and Richard Rotert, eds. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1987. 252p. $27.00. (0-208-02110-8)

These essays show how young protagonists have overcome fear, grief, abuse, poverty, ignorance, racism, and other obstacles.

Turning Mirrors into Windows: Teaching the Best Short Films. Marion Bue. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1984. 287p. $21.50. (0-87287-397-8)

The author has compiled film reviews, study guides, and teaching tips for use in secondary schools.

Twenty Tellable Tales. Margaret Read MacDonald. New York: H.W. Wilson, 1986. 220p. $28.00. (0-8242-0719-X)

This book is a collection of 20 folktales from various parts of the world. Material is arranged in three parts: part one includes the tales; part two features sections on finding, learning, and telling tales and describes origins of the folktale text and storytelling styles; and part three includes information on researching tale variants, on type and motif indexes for folktale research, on building background in the folktale, on media folktelling and contains bibliographies for the storyteller.

U.S.A. Through Children's Books. International Relations Committee, Association for Library Service to Children. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. 2p. Single copy free. (0-8389-7010-9)

These annotations describe books published in 1984 and 1985 that represent the cultural of the peoples of the United States. In selecting the books, the committee looked for titles that possess high literary quality and originality of text, illustrations, and design; and that appeal to children from preschool years through age 14.

The U.S Constitution Bicentennial: A We the People Resource Book. ALA's Office for Intellectual Freedom and the American Bar Association's Commission on Public Understanding About the Law. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. $10.00.

This resource book provides information, materials, and suggested activities to help libraries plan programs and displays. It contains posters; camera-ready art for ads and bookmarks; lists of books, audiovisual materials and, plays on the United States Constitution.

U.S. Government Books. Washington, DC: Superintendent of Documents. 4 issues/yr. Free.

This sales catalog lists about 900 or more books, magazines, and posters.

United States Puzzlers. Candy Colborn. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 220p. $18.50. (0065-9959-573-3)

This guide is designed to provide teachers and library media specialists with materials to use from the third to fifth grade levels to reinforce in-depth learning about individual states.

University Press Books for Secondary School Libraries, 1986/18th ed. Selected by Secondary School Librarians. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1987. 70p. Free.

Titles selected based on suitability for secondary school library media centers are arranged alphabetically under the Dewey Decimal System.

Using Children's Books in Social Studies: Early Childhood Through Primary Grades. Joan E. Schreiber. Washington, DC: National Council for the Social Studies, 1984. 44p. $3.95. (0-8798-6047-2)

This book includes an introduction that presents a rationale for the use of children's books in the social studies curriculum. A bibliography is provided.

Using Computers to Teach Social Studies. Gene E. Rooze and Terry Northup. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1986. 200p. $19.95. (0-87287-500-8)

This book explains how to use the computer in social studies. It is divided into six chapters with a bibliography appended to each.

Using Copyrighted Video Cassettes in Classrooms and Libraries. Jerome K. Miller. Champaign, IL: Copyright Information Services, 1984. 91p. $10.00.

The author describes the legal conditions for using video cassettes in classrooms and libraries.

Using Media to Make Kids Feel Good: Resources and Activities for Successful Programs in Hospitals. Maureen Gaffney. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1987. 232p. $35.00. (089774-345-8)

This guide covers over 50 videos, films, and closed-circuit TV programs along with related projects and activities. Each program and activity is described in detail including the materials and dexterity level and an evaluation of the film or video program. Appendices include indexes to themes and activities, lists of children's books and recommended print resources, and distributors of films and video cassettes.

Values in Selected Children's Books of Fiction and Fantasy. Carolyn W. Field and Jacqueline Shacter. Hamden, CT: Shoe String, 1987. 240p. $27.50. (0-208-02100-0)

This selection tool identifies more than 700 books of fiction and fantasy that demonstrate positive values through their story lines. Each section categorizes books into age ranges—early years, middle years, and later years—and concludes with a short summary and bibliographic references.

Vertical File Index: A Subject and Title Index to Selected Pamphlet Materials. New York: H.W. Wilson. 11 issues/yr. $30.00/yr. (0042-4439)

This guide provides subject and title listings of pamphlets and leaflets. It lists free and inexpensive materials.

The Video Source Book, 6th ed. Professional Volume. Syosset, NY: National Video Clearinghouse, 1984. 1,809p. $125.00. (Distributed by Gale Research) (0-9354-7824-8)

This guide provides 35,000 programs currently available on video from 650 sources. Divided into five main sections, the guide gives videographic details; codes for school use; audience ratings for movies; codes for school level, codes for instruction, education, special education, and teacher education.

Vocational-Technical Core Collection. Jack Hall and Victoria C. Lessard. New York: Neal-Schuman, 1984. 394p. $39.95. (0-9182-1246-4)

This is an annotated list of books that explain specific skills and techniques essential to a trade. Titles are grouped under the broad areas of business, graphics, communications, building trades, health, personal services, manufacturing, and transportation.

Voc Ed. Lowell A. Burkett, ed. Arlington, VA: American Vocational Association. 8 issues/yr. $4.00/yr. (0164-9175)

This publication discusses occupational, technical, and vocational education. It includes books and teaching aids.

VOYA (Voice of Youth Advocates). Dorothy Broderick and Mary K. Chelton. University of Alabama: 6 issues/yr. $20.00/yr. (0160-4201)

This guide reviews books, series titles, records, and inexpensive materials. It includes articles on subjects of interest to young adults.

The War of the American Revolution: A Selected Annotated Bibliography of Published Sources. Richard L. Blanco. New York: Garland, 1984. 654p. $60.00. (0-8240-917-X)

This bibliography contains annotations to 3,700 sources of information on the Revolutionary War. This volume covers all aspects of the war.

Where to Start: An Annotated Career Planning Bibliography, 1985–1987, 5th ed. Madeline T. Rockcastle, ed. Princeton, NJ: Peterson's Guides, 1985. 278p. $12.95. (0-87866-384-3)

This guide identifies approximately 2,000 publications in 21 career fields.

Whole Again Resource Guide. Tim Ryan and Patricia J. Case. Santa Barbara, CA: Source Net, 1987. 360p. $24.95. (0-915051-01-X, 83-641044)

This revised edition lists periodicals and other resources on such subjects as the anti-nuclear energy and weapons movement, animal rights, appropriate technology, conservation, gay rights, feminism, holistic health, homesteading, people of color, spiritual growth, and Third World. A detailed index by publisher, editor, title, and subject, as well as a listing of entries by state or country are included.

Wilson Library Bulletin. New York: H.W. Wilson. 10 issues/yr. $22.00/yr.

This periodical provides columns on picture books, young adult books, mysteries, television, popular music, magazines, professional materials, and reference books.

Witness to War: A Thematic Guide to Young Adult Literature on World War II, 1965–1981. Cathryn J. Wellner. Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1982. 277p. $17.00. (0-8108-1552-4)

This annotated guide provides 178 novels and memoirs on war. Each annotation indicates the work's of the country origin, whether it is fiction or nonfiction, and its reading level.

Women's Studies: A Recommended Core Bibliography, 1980–1985, Abridged Edition. Catherine R. Loeb, et al. Littleton, CO: Libraries Unlimited, 1987. 250p. $23.50. (0065-9959-598-9)

This guide provides annotations on women's studies resources, organized by academic disciplines. Full author and title indexes, as well as a subject index, complete the volume.

The World of Work: A Handicapped Person's Guide to Finding a Job. Association of Specialized and Cooperative Library Services. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1984. 38p. $8.00.

This annotated bibliography is designed for use by disabled persons looking for a job, by media specialists selecting materials, and by vocational and rehabilitation counselors working with handicapped people. It includes information on the availability of large print and braille materials, as well as on recorded discs and audiocassettes.

Writers for Young Adults: Biographies Master Index. Adele Sankissian. Detroit, MI: Gale Research, 1984. 354p. $85.00. (0-8103-1473-8)

This book has entries on 15,000 biographical writers for whom biographical information can be found in some 500 biographical sources. Each entry gives the writer's name, birth and death dates, and an alphabetically arranged list of sources in which biographical information might be found.

Writing is Reading: 26 Ways to Connect. Eileen Tway. Urbana, IL: National Council of Teachers of English, 1985. 48p. $6.25. (59044-501)

This book offers 26 activities that connect the teaching of reading and writing such as bookmaking, script writing, storytelling, and team writing.

You Are Not Alone: Intellectual Freedom Issues and Library Services to Youth. Young Adult Services Division. Chicago, IL: American Library Association, 1986. $10.50.

This packet contains 25 items, including examples of policy statements, definitions of issues, public information and education materials, methods of communication, and other resources.

Young Adult Annual and Evaluation Booklist, 1986. Adult Services Department. Los Angeles, CA: Los Angeles Public Library, 1986. 56p. $5.00.

This booklist lists young adult titles.

Your Reading: A Booklist for Junior High Students. National Council of Teachers of English. Urbana, IL: The Council, 1984. 764p. $12.00. (0-8141-5938.9)

This guide lists over 3,000 book titles for ages 10–14. Fiction and nonfiction titles are grouped under 14 topic headings. Annotations give the length and level of difficulty of each book, indicate mature subject matter or language, and list award winners.

Youth and Alcohol Abuse: Reading and Resources. Carla M. Felsted, ed. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1986. 240p. $29.50. (0-89774-251-6)

This book provides a series of articles on alcoholism and resources for dealing with this problem. The resource section includes books, pamphlets, films, and other educational materials.

A SELECTIVE COLLECTION OF SELECTION TOOLS

The following titles have been selected as a beginning list of tools useful for building school library media center collections.

Elementary Schools

Books

A to Zoo: Subject Access to Children's Picture Books

Adventuring with Books: A Booklist for Pre-K-Grade 6

Best Books for Children: Preschool Through the Middle Grades

The Best Science Books and Films for Children

Bibliography of Nonsexist Supplementary Books (K-12)

Bilingual Books in Spanish and English for Children

Children's Catalog

The Elementary School Library Collection: A Guide to Books and Other Media

Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers

Periodicals

Appraisal: Science Books for Children

Booklist and Subscription Books Bulletin

Bulletin of the Center for Children's Book

Horn Book Magazine

School Library Journal

Middle Schools

Books

Adventuring with Books: A Booklist for Pre-K-Grade 6

The Best Science Books and Films for Children

Children's Books of International Interest: A Selection from Four Decades of American Publishing

Free Resource Builder for Libraries and Teachers

A Guide to Nonsexist Children's Books

Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers

High Interest/Easy Reading for Junior and Senior High School Students

Junior High School Library Catalog and Supplement

Poetry Anthologies for Children and Young People

Resources for Middle-Grade Reluctant Readers: A Guide for Librarians

Young Reading: A Booklist for Junior High Students

Periodicals

Appraisal: Science Books for Children

Art Education

Booklist and Subscription Books Bulletin

Bulletin for the Center for Children's Books

The English Journal

Health Education

Mathematics Teacher

Reading Teacher

School Library Journal

Social Education

Secondary Schools

Books

AAAS Science Book List Supplement 1978–1986

American Ethnic Groups: A Guide to the Reference Sources

Books for Secondary School Libraries

Books for You: A Booklist for Senior High Students

Free Resource Builder for Libraries and Teachers

Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers

High Interest/Easy Reading for Junior and Senior High School Students

Magazines for School Libraries

Reading Ladders for Human Relations

Science Books and Films

Senior High School Library Catalog

Substance Abuse Materials for School Libraries: An Annotated Bibliography

Youth and Alcohol Abuse: Reading and Resources

Periodicals

Art Education

Booklist and Subscription Books Bulletin

Computing Teacher

English Journal

Health Education

Journal of Reading

Mathematics Teacher

School Library Journal

Social Education

BIBLIOGRAPHIES IN SPECIALIZED SUBJECT AREAS

Art

Art and Design in Children's Picture Books: An Analysis of Caldecott Award-Winning Books

Art Books 1980–1984

Art Education

Career

Career Planning Materials: A Guide to Sources and Their Uses

Careers in Fact and Fiction

Current Career and Occupational Literature

Developing Career Information Centers: A Guide to Collection Building and Counseling

Index to Vocational and Technical Education (Multi-Media) 4th ed

Industrial Education

Materials for Occupational Education: An Annotated Source Guide, 2nd ed.

School Shop

Technology Teacher

Vocational-Technical Core Collection

Voc Ed

Where to Start: An Annotated Career Planning Bibliography, 1985–1987, 5th ed

Computers

Access to Media: A Guide to Integrating and Computering Catalogs

The Apple K-12 Curriculum Software Reference Guides

Appleworks for School Librarians

Choosing Educational Software: A Buyer's Guide

Circulation Systems for School Media Centers

Classroom Computer News Directory of Educational Computing Resources

Commonsense Copyright: A Guide to the New Technologies

Computerized Cataloging

Computerized Collection Development for School Library Media Centers

Computing Teacher

Directory of Microcomputer Software for Libraries

The Educational Software Preview Guide

Electronic Learning

Evaluating Educational Software

Improving Instruction with Microcomputers: Readings and Resources for Elementary and Secondary Schools

Library Automation for Library Technicians: An Introduction

Library Automation: Issues and Applications

Media Center Management with an Apple II

The Media Specialists, the Microcomputer, and the Curriculum

The Microcomputer Facility and the School Library Media Specialist

Microcomputer Information for School Media Centers

Microcomputer Spreadsheet Models for Libraries: Preparing Documents, Budgets, and Statistical Reports

Microcomputers: A Planning and Implementation Guide for Librarians and Information Professionals

Microcomputers and Libraries: A Bibliographic Sourcebook

Microcomputers in School Library Media Center

MicroSift

Microsource: Where to Find Answers to Questions About Microcomputers

101 Software Packages to Use in Your Library: Descriptions, Evaluations, Practical Advice

Only the Best: The Discriminating Software Guide for Preschool—Grade 12

Parent/Teacher's Microcomputing Sourcebook for Children

The Reader's Guide to Microcomputer Books, 2nd ed

The Software Finder (A Guide to Educational Microcomputer Software for Apple II, Atari 400/800, Commodore Pet, CBM, Vic-20, 64, Radio Shack TRS-80 Models-III, Color Compiler and CP/M)

Software Reviews on File

Software Reports

The Special Ware Directory: A Guide to Software for Special Education

TESS: The Education Software Selector

Using Computers to Teach Social Studies

Using Copyrighted Video Cassettes in Classrooms and Libraries

Early Childhood

A to Z: Subject Access to Children's Picture Books 2nd. ed

Alphabet: A Handbook of ABC Books and Activities for the Elementary Classroom

Alphabet Books As a Key to Language Patterns: An Annotated Action Bibliography

Alphabet Puppets: Songs, Stories and Craft Activities for Letter Recognition and Sounds

Books for Children

Books Kids Will Sit Still For: A Guide to Using Children's Literature for Librarians, Teachers, and Parents

Caldecott Search-A-Word Learning Guide

Children's Literature from A to Z

E is for Everybody: A Manual for Bringing Fine Picture Books Into the Hands and Hearts of Children

Early Childhood Literature Sharing Programs in Libraries

Exciting, Funny, Scary, Short, Different and Sad Books Kids Like About Animals, Science, Sports, Families, Songs, and other Things

From Reader to Writer: Creative Writing in the Middle Grades Using Picture Books

Fun for Kids: An Index to Children's Crafts Books

Glad Rags: Stories and Activities Featuring Clothes for Children

Instructor

Picture Book Story Hours: From Birthdays to Bears

Picture Books for Children

Picture Books for Gifted Programs

Piggyback Songs: New Songs Sung to the Tune of Childhood Favorites

Pocketful of Puppets: Never Pick a Python for a Pet and Other Animal Poems

Puppet Shows Made Easy!

Rainbows and Ice Cream: Storytimes About Things Kids Like

Reading Aloud with Children Through Age 8

Ready, Set, Read: Best Books to Prepare Preschoolers

Stories to Draw

Story Programs: A Source Book of Materials

The Story Vine: A Source Book of Unusual and Easy-to-Tell Stories from Around the World

Storytelling with Puppets

Storytelling for Two-Year-Olds

Toys That Teach Your Child from Birth to Two

Using Children's Books in Social Studies: Early Childhood Through Primary Grades

Gifted

Books and Real Life: A Guide for Gifted Students and Teachers

Books for the Gifted Child

Challenging the Gifted Curriculum Enrichment and Acceleration Models

Choice

Choose, Use, Enjoy, Share: Library Media Skills for Gifted Child

Creating Programs for the Gifted: A Guide for Teachers, Librarians and Students

Creative Reading for Gifted Learners

Exploring Books with Gifted Children

The Gifted and Talented Student

Handbook of Instructional Resources and References for Teaching the Gifted, 2nd. ed

Library Media Projects for the Gifted

The Research Book for Gifted Programs K-8

Coping, Death, Divorce, Drugs

Books and Films on Death and Dying for Children and Adolescents: An Annotated Bibliography

Books for Today's Young Readers: An Annotated Bibliography of Recommended Fiction for Ages 10–14

Books to Help Children Cope with Separation and Loss, 2nd edition

Children and Divorce

Health/Physical Education/Safety/Sports

Alcohol and the Family

Child Sexual Abuse and Prevention Resources

The Consumer Health Information Source Book, 2nd. edition

Dyslexia: An Annotated Bibliography

Encyclopedia of Health Information Sources

Food and Nutrition Information Guide

Health, Illness, and Disability: A Guide to Books for Children and Young Adults

Journal of Physical Education, Recreation and Dance

Substance Abuse Materials for School Libraries: An Annotated Bibliography

Youth and Alcohol Abuse: Reading and Resources

Language Arts

Anatomy of Wonder: A Critical Guide to Science Fiction

Basic Language Skills Through Films: An Instructional Program for Secondary Students

Behind the Covers: Interviews with Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults

Best Books for Children: Preschool Through the Middle Grades. 3rd. ed

Best Books for Young Adults 1986

The Best in Children's Books

The Best of Book Bonanza

Bibliography of Books for Children

Biography Puzzlers

The Book Report

Booklist Bookwaves

Books and the Teenage Reader: A Guide for Teachers, Librarians and Parents

Books Appeal: Get Teenagers into the School Library

Books for Secondary School Libraries, 6th ed

Books for the Teen Age

Books for You: A Booklist for Senior High Students

Books in Print

Books to Share: Notable Children's Books of 1986

Bulletin of the Center for Children Books

Chalk in Hand: The Draw and Tell Book

Children and Books

Children's Book Awards and Prizes

Children's Books in Print 1987–1988

Children's Books of the Year

Children's Caravan: A Reading Activities Idea Book for Use with Children

Children's Catalog, 15th ed

Children's Choices for 1986

Children's Classics: With Lists of Recommended Editions

Children's Fiction 1876–1984: A Bibliography of United States Editions

Children's Literature: A Guide to Reference Sources and Monographs

Children's Literature: A Guide to the Criticism

Children's Literature in the Elementary School, 4th. ed

Children's Literature in the Reading Program

Children's Periodicals of the United States

Childview: Evaluating and Reviewing Materials for Children

Choosing Books for Children: A Commonsense Guide

Choosing Books for Young People, Vol. 2: A Guide to Criticism and Bibliography 1976–1984

Connections: Using Contemporary Children's Literature (K-9) in the Classroom

Creative Encounters: Activities to Expand Children's Responses to Literature

Creative Slide/Tape Programs

Creative Writing Through Films: An Instructional Program for Secondary Students

Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature: An Idea Book for K-5 Classrooms and Libraries

Developing Library-Museum Partnerships to Serve Young People

Doors to More Mature Reading: Detailed Notes on Adult Books for Use With Young People, 2nd. ed.

Dickinson's American Historical Fiction, 5th. ed.

Dictionary of American Children's Fiction, 1960–1984

Educational Film Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R. Bowkers Co.

El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print

The Elementary School Journal

The Elementary School Library Collection: A Guide to Books and Other Media, Phases 1-2-3, 15th ed.

The Elementary School Paperback Collection

The English Journal

Experiencing Children's Literature

The Family Storytelling Handbook: How to Use Stories, Anecdotes, Rhymes, Handkerchiefs, Paper, and Other Objects to Enrich Your Family Traditions

Fantasy for Children

Fiction Catalog, 11th. ed.

Fiction, Folklore, Fantasy and Poetry for Children, 1976–1985

Fiction for Youth: A Guide to Recommended Books, 2nd. ed.

Films and Filmstrips for Language Arts: An Annotated Bibliography

Focus Units in Literature: A Handbook for Elementary School Teachers

For Reading Out Loud! A Guide to Sharing Books with Children

Free Magazines for Libraries, 2nd. ed.

Genreflecting: A Guide to Reading Interests in Genre Fiction, 2nd. ed.

Good Reading: A Guide for Serious Readers, 22nd. ed.

Grant Proposal Writing: A Handbook for School Library Media Specialists

Guide to American Literature

A Guide to Selecting Books for Children

Happy Ever After: A Guide to Reading Interest in Romance Fiction

The Horn Book Magazine: About Children's Books and Reading

Horror Literature: A Core Collection and Reference Guide

How to Capture Live Authors and Bring Them to Your School

How-To: 1,200 Best Books on Doing Almost Anything

Index to Children's Plays in Collections

Juniorplots 3: A Guide for Teachers and Librarians

Keep Watching the Skies! American Science Fiction Movies of the Fifties—Vol. II

Kirkus Review, Juvenile Section

Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide: An Annotated List of Current Paperback Books for Young Adults

The Kobrin Letter

Language Arts

Let's Read Together: Books for Family Enjoyment

Librarians' Guide: Young Adult Paperbacks

Library Journal

Library Media Skills and the Senior High School English Program

Literature for Today's Young Adults, 2nd. ed.

Magazines: A bibliography for Their Analysis, with Annotations and Study Guide

Magazines for Children: A Guide for Parents, Teachers, and Librarians

Magazines for Libraries, 5th. ed.

Magazines for School Libraries

Magazines for Young Adults: Sections for School and Public Libraries

Media Review Digest

Media Skills for Middle Schools: Strategies for Library Media Specialists and Teachers

Media Skills Puzzlers

Merlin's Magic: A Reading Activities Book for Use with Children

Motivating Children and Young Adults to Read

Mudluscious: Stories and Activities Featuring Food for Preschool Children

A Multimedia Approach to Children's Literature: A Selective List of Films, Filmstrips, Recordings, and Videocassettes Based on Children's Books, 3rd. ed.

Name That Book!

The National Storytelling Journal

The New Hooked on Books

Notable Children's Books 1976–1980

Notable Children's Films, Filmstrips, and Recordings, 1986

Once Upon. . . A Time for Young People and Their Books: An Annotated Resource Guide

One Hundred Titles for Reading and Sharing

Outstanding Books for the College Bound

Paperback Books for Children Through Age 12

Paperbound Books in Print

A Parent's Guide to Children's Reading, 5th. ed.

Picture Researcher's Handbook: An International Guide to Picture Sources and How to Use Them

Poetry Anthologies for Children and Young People

Popular Reading for Children II: A Collection of Booklist Columns

Presenting Reader's Theater: Plays and Poems to Read Aloud

Programming for School-Age Child Care: A Children's Literature Based Guide

The Read-Aloud Handbook

The Reading Consultant/Library Media Specialist Team: Building the Reading Habit

C7

A Reference Guide to Modern Fantasy for Children

Reference Services Today: From Interview to Burnout

Reflections on Literature for Children

The Research Almanac

Resources for Youth Workers and Program Planners: An Annotated Bibliography

Resources on Parenting Young Adolescents

The Riverside Anthology of Children's Literature, 6th edition

School Library Journal

School Library Media Activities Monthly

Selected Films for Young Adults

Selected Videos and Films for Young Adults: 1975–1985

Selecting Materials for Children and Young Adults: A Bibliography of Bibliographies

Self-Help: 1,200 Best Books on Personal Growth

Senior High School Library Catalog, 13th. ed

The Senior High School Paperback Collection

Sequences: An Annotated Guide to Children's Fiction In Series

Short Stories on Film and Video

66 Media Skills Puzzlers

Sports: A Multimedia Guide for Children and Young Adults

Storyteller's Sourcebook: A Subject, Title and Motif Index to Folklore Collections for Children

Storytelling Activities

Storytelling: Art and Technique

Storytelling: Process and Practice

Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1987–1988

Supernatural Fiction for Teens: 500 Good Paperbacks to Read for Wonderment, Fear, and Fun

Supporting K-5 Reading Instruction in the School Library Media Center

Tales of Love and Terror: Booktalking the Classics, Old and New

They All Want To Write: Written English in the Elementary School

This Way to Books

Those Bloomin' Books: A Handbook for Extending Thinking Skills

Top of the News

Triumphs of the Spirit in Children's Literature

Turning Mirrors into Windows: Teaching the Best Short Films

Twenty Tellable Tales

University Press Books for Secondary School Libraries, 1986/18th. edition

Using Media to Make Kids Feel Good: Resources and Activities for Successful Programs in Hospitals

Values in Selected Children's Books of Fiction and Fantasy

VOYA (Voice of Youth Advocates)

Wilson Library Bulletin

Writers for Young Adults: Biographies Master Index

Writing is Reading: 26 Ways to Connect

Young Adult Annual and Evaluation Booklist, 1986

Your Reading: A Booklist for Junior High School Students

Mathematics

Arithmetic Teacher

The High School Mathematics Library, 7th ed.

Mathematics Teacher: Journal of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Media Centers

Administering the School Library Media Center

Aids to Media Selection for Students and Teachers

Basic Library Skills, 2nd. ed.

Basic Media Skills Through Games, Volume I

Basic Media Skills Through Games, Volume II

Behavior Management in the School Library Media Center

Booktalk 2: Booktalking for All Ages and Audiences, 2nd. edition

Building Library Collections, 6th ed

Building Reference Skills in the Elementary School

The Collection In High Schools: Concepts, Practices and Information Sources

Collection Management for School Library Media Centers

The Collection Program in Elementary and Middle Schools: Concepts, Practices and Information Sources

Complete Media Monitor: Guide to Learning Resources

Developing Library Collections

Display and Publicity Ideas for Libraries

Games for Information Skills

Great Library Promotion Ideas III: JCD Library Public Relations Awards Winners and Notables, 1986

Happenings: Developing Successful Programs for School Libraries

Helping Teachers Teach: A School Library/Media Specialist's Role

Instruction in School Library Media Center Use (K-12), 2nd. ed

Integrating Library Media Skills Into the Reading Programs K-6

Intellectual Freedom for Children: A Packet of Materials

Junior High School Library Catalog, 5th. ed.

The Junior High School Paperback Collection

Libraries Technology, and the Information Marketplace

The Library Media Program and the School

Library Media Skills: Strategies for Instructing Primary Students

Library Space Planning: How to Assess, Allocate, and Reorganize Resources and Physical Facilities

Media and Methods

Media Selection Handbook

Off the Wall: The Art of Book Display

On This Day: A Collection of Everyday Learning Events and Activities for the Media Center, Library and Classroom

Ready for Reference: Media Skills for Intermediate Students

The School Administrator's Guide to Evaluating Library Media Programs

School Library and Media Center Acquisition Policies and Procedures

School Library Media Center, 4th edition

School Library Media Skills Test and Manual

School Media Policy Development: Practical Process for Small Districts

Selecting Educational Equipment and Materials for School and Home

Showing Off: Display and Exhibit Ideas for Children's Library Services

Steps to Service

Teaching Library Media Skills: An Instructional Program for Elementary and Middle School Students, 2nd. ed.

Teaching the Library Research Process: A Step-by-Step Program for Secondary School Students

Vertical File Index: A Subject and Title Index to Selected Pamphlet Materials

Multicultural

Afro-American in Books for Children: Including Books About Africa and the West Indies, A Selected List

American Ethnic Groups: A Guide to the Reference Sources

The Basic Collection of Children's Books in Spanish

Bibliography of Universally Available Curriculum Materials for South Asian Languages, Part One: Hindi/Urdu, Kashmiri, Khowar, Marathi, Nepali and Panjalu Languages. Occasional Publication 9

Bilingual-Bicultural Education: An Annotated Bibliography 1936–1982

Bilingual Books in Spanish and English for Children

Bilingual Education Publications in Print, 1983: Including Audiovisual Materials

The Black American in Books for Children: Readings in Racism

The Black Experience in Children's Books

Black Impressions: A Book List for Children and Parents to Share

Books in Spanish for Children and Young Adults: An Annotated Guide. Series III

Children's Books of International Interest: A Selection from Four Decades of American Publishing

A Comprehensive Guide to Children's Literature with a Jewish Theme

A Filmography of the Third World, 1976–1983: An Annotated List of 16 mm Films

Hey Miss: You Got a Book for Me? A Model Multicultural Resource Collection Annotated Bibliography

A Hispanic Heritage II: A Guide to Juvenile Books about Hispanic People and Cultures

Interracial Books for Children Bulletin

Latinos in the United States: A Historical Bibliography

Library Services for Hispanic Children: A Guide for Public and School Libraries

Libro En Espanol: An Annotated List of Children's Books in Spanish

On Being Black: A Selected List of Books, Films, Filmstrips, Recordings, for Young Adults

Promoting World Understanding Through Literature, K-8

Reading Ladders for Human Relations, 6th. ed

Recommended East Asian Core Collections for Children's High School, Public, Community College and Undergraduate Libraries!

Selected Jewish Picture Books: An Annotated Bibliography

Selecting Materials for and about Hispanic and East Asian Children and Young People

Shadow and Substance: Afro-American Experience in Contemporary Children's Fiction

U.S.A. Through Children's Books

Music

American Music Teacher

Basic Music Library: Essential Scores and Books

Reference

American Reference Books Annual, 1987, (Vol. 18)

Best Encyclopedias: A Guide to General and Specialized Encyclopedias

Best Reference Books 1981–1985

Desk Dictionaries: A Consumer's Guide

Government Reference Books 84/85: A Biennial Guide to U.S. Government Publications

Guide to Reference Books

Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers, 3rd. Edition

A Guide to Reference Books for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries, 1970–1982

Kister's Atlas Buying Guide: General English Language World Atlases Available in North America

Recommended Reference Books for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries and Media Centers

Reference and Information Services: A Reader for Today

Reference Books for Young Readers

Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries

Reference Sources in Library and Information Services: A Guide to the Literature

Science

AAAS Science Book List Supplement 1978–1986

Appraisal: Science Books for Children

The Best Science Books and Films for Children

Guide to Information Sources in the Botanical Sciences

Guide to the Petroleum Reference Literature

The Museum of Science and Industry Basic List for Children's Science Books, 1986

New Technical Books! A Selective List with Descriptive Annotations

Outstanding Science Trade Books for Children

Science Books and Films

Science Books for Children: Selections from Booklist, 1976–1983

Science Fair Project Index 1973–1980's

Science Teacher

Scientific and Technical and Serials in Print, 1985

Storytime Science

Sex Equity/Women

The Aging/Adult in Children's Books and Nonprint Media: An Annotated Bibliography

BIAS (Building Instruction Around Sex-Equity): Bibliography of Non-Sexist Supplementary Books (K-12)

Bibliography of Nonsexist Supplementary Books (K-12)

Books for Today's Children: An Annotated Bibliography of Non-Stereotyped Picture Books

Feminist Resources for Schools and Colleges: A Guide to Curriculum Materials, 3rd. ed.

Films for, By and About Women, Series III

Girls are People Too: A Bibliography of Nontraditionally Female Roles in Children's Books

A Guide to Non-Sexist Children's Books, Volume II: 1976–1985

Her Way: A Guide to Biographies of Women for Young People

Homosexuality: A Research Guide

The International Directory of Gay and Lesbian Periodicals

Parents as Sexuality Educators: An Annotated Print and Nonprint Audiovisual Bibliography for Professionals and Parents (1970–1984)

Puberty, Pregnancy, and Parenting: Teen Sex and Sexuality

Screening Educational Equity: A Filmography

Sex-Education for Adolescents: A Bibliography of Low Cost Materials

Sex Guides: Books and Films about Sexuality for Young Adults

Sixty-Plus: Seniors in Contemporary Fiction

Women's Studies: A Recommended Core Bibliography, 1980–1985, Abridged Edition

Social Studies

The Access Collection of 16mm Classics: 100 Short Films about the Human Environment

Adventuring with Books: A Booklist for Pre-K-Grade 6

73

Alternative Library Literature 1984/1985

American Autobiography

Celebrations: Read-Aloud Holiday and Theme Book Programs

Censorship: A Guide for Successful Workshop Planning

The Constitution in the Classroom: Ideas and Resources for Teaching and Learning about the U.S. Constitution

A Consumers' Researchers' and Students' Guide to Government Publications

Curriculum Review

Defusing Censorship: The Librarian's Guide to Handling Censorship Conflicts

EPIE Report

Equal Rights Amendment: An Annotated Bibliography of the Issues

Exceptional Free Library Resource Materials

Films, Young People, and Libraries

First Lady: A Bibliography of Selected Material by and about Eleanor Roosevelt

Free Resource Builder for Libraries and Teachers

From Radical Right to Extreme Left: A Bibliography of Current Periodicals of Protest, Controversy, Advocacy, or Dissent, with Dispassionate, Content-Summaries to Guide Librarians and Other Educators

Guide to Popular US Government Publications

A Guide to Selected Federal Agency Programs and Publications for Librarians and Teachers

Information America: Sources of Print and Nonprint Materials from Organizations, Industry, Government Agencies, and Specialized Publishers

The Lady Laureates: Women Who Have Won the Nobel Prize, 2nd. ed.

Notable Children's Trade Books in the Field of Social Studies

Novel Verdicts: A Guide to Courtroom Fiction

The Nuclear Arms Race: A Digest with Bibliographies

Off-Air Videotaping in Education: Copyright Issues, Decisions, Implications

Our Constitution: 200 Years

Reading for Young People: Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia

A Selected Bibliography for the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution

Selection of Library Materials in Applied and Interdisciplinary Fields

The U.S. Constitution bicentennial: A We the People Resource Book

U.S. Government Books

United States Puzzlers

The War of the American Revolution: A Selected Annotated Bibliography of Published Sources

Whole Again Resource Guide

Witness to Wars: A Thematic Guide to Young Adult Literature on World War II, 1965–1981

You Are Not Alone: Intellectual Freedom Issues and Library Services to Youth

Special Populations

Accept Me As I Am: Best Books of Juvenile Nonfiction on Impairments and Disabilities

Alan Review

The Bookfinder. Vol. 3: A Guide to Children's Literature About the Needs and Problems Published 1979 Through 1982

Booklist

Children's Literature for all Handicapped Children

A Deafness Collection: Selected and Annotated

Disability In Modern Children's Fiction

Easy-to-Read Books for Teenagers

High-Interest Books for Teens: A Guide to Book Reviews and Bibliographic Sources

High Interest-Easy Reading for Junior and Senior High School Students

High/Low Consensus

High/Low Handbook: Books, Materials and Services for the Teenage Problem Reader

High Low Report

Large Type Books in Print 1985

Learning Differences-Library Directions: A Packet of Materials for Professionals Who Work With Children With Learning Disabilities

Library Service to the Deaf and Hearing Impaired

More Notes from a Different Drummer: A Guide to Juvenile Fiction Portraying the Disabled

Notes From A Different Drummer: A Guide to Juvenile Fiction Portraying the Handicapped

Reading for the Fun of It: A Guide to Books for Children with Learning Disabilities

Recommended Books for Reluctant Y A Readers

Reference Books in Special Media

Resources for Middle-Grade Reluctant Readers: A Guide for Librarians

Sharing the World's Magic: A Guide to Folk Literature for Children with Learning Differences

Talking Book Topics

The World of Work: A Handicapped Person's Guide to Finding a Job

DIRECTORY OF PUBLISHERS

ABC/CLIO, P.O. Box 4397, Santa Barbara, CA 93140-4397

Academy Chicago, 425 North Michigan, Chicago, IL 60611

Allyn and Bacon, Inc., 7 Wells Avenue, Newton, MA 02159

Alleyside Press, P.O. Box 889, Hagerstown, MD 21741

American Alliance for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, 1202 16th Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20036

American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, 1900 Association Drive, Reston, VA 22091

American Association for the Advancement of Science, Sales Department 83, 1515 Massachusetts Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20005

American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), 1333 H Street, NW Washington, DC 20005

American Association of School Librarians, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611

American Federation of Teachers, 555 New Jersey Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20001

American Guidance Service, Publisher's Building 2040, Circle Pines, MN 55014

American Industrial Arts Association, 1914 Association Drive, Reston, VA 22091

American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611

American Society of Educators, 1151 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102

American Vocational Association, 1410 King Street, Alexandria, VA 22314

Association for Childhood Education, 3615 Wisconsin Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20016

Association for Childhood International, 1141 Georgia Avenue, Suite 2000, Wheaton, MD 20902

Austin Bilingual Language Editions, P.O. Box 3864, Austin, TX 78764

Bank Street College, 610 West 112th Street, New York, NY 10025

Bay Area Reference Center, San Francisco Public Library, Civic Center, San Francisco, CA 94102

Bay Area Young Adult Librarians, 90 Normandy Lane, Walnut Creek, CA 94598

Beverly Kobrin, 732 Greer Road, Palo Alto, CA 94303

Brodart, 500 Arch Street, Williamsport, PA 17705

Brookline Books, P.O. Box 1046, 29 Ware Street, Boston, MA 02130

The Center for Applied Research in Education, Box 430, West Nyack, NY 10995

Center for Early Adolescence, Suite 223, Carr Mill Mall, Carrboro, NC 27510

Children's Book Council, 67 Irving Place, New York, NY 10003

Children's Science Book Review Committee, Longfellow Hall, Appian Way, Cambridge, MA 02138

Children's Services Department, Middle County Public Library, 101 Eastwood Boulevard, Centereach, NY 11720

Copyright Information Services, P.O. Box 1460, Friday Harbor, WA 98250

Council on Interracial Books for Children, 1841 Broadway, New York, NY 10023

Cummings Publications (Benjamin-Cummings), South Street, Reading, MA 01867

Curriculum Advisor Service, 517 South Jefferson, Chicago, IL 60607

Cuyahoga Public Library, 4510 Memphis Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44144

Delacorte, 1 Day Hammarskjold Plaza, New York, NY 10017

District of Columbia Public Library, Children's Service, 901 G Street, NW Washington, DC 20001

Dresden Associates, P.O. Box 246, Dresden, ME 04342

East Woods Press, Old Chester Road, Chester, CT 06412

Education News Service, P.O. Box 1789, Carmichael, CA 95609

Educational Products Information Exchange, P.O. Box 839, Watermill, NY 11976

Electronic Learning (Scholastic, Inc.), P.O. Box 7500, 2931 East McCarty Street, Jefferson City, MO 65102

Enoch Pratt Free Library, 400 Cathedral Street, Baltimore, MD 21201-4484

ERIC Document Reproduction Service, 3900 Wheeler Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22304

The Feminist Press, P.O. Box 334, Old Westbury, NY 10019

The Feminist Press at the City University of New York, 311 East 94 Street, New York, NY 10128

Freline Inc., 32 East Avenue, Hagerstown, MD 21740

G.K. Hale, 70 Lincoln Street, Boston, MA 02111

Gale Research, Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226

Garland Publishing, 136 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10016

Golden-Lee Book, 1000 Dean Street, Brooklyn, NY 11238

Good Grief Program, Judge Baker Guidance Center, 295 Longwood Avenue, Boston, MA 02115

Greenwood, 88 Post Road, P.O. Box 5007, Westport, CT 06881

H.W. Wilson, 950 University Avenue, Bronx, NY 10452

Harper and Row, 10 East 53rd Street, New York, NY 10022

Haworth, 28 East 22nd Street, New York, NY 10010-6194

Hi Willow Research and Publishing (Distributed by Libraries Unlimited)

Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 383 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10017

Horn Book, Inc., 31 South, James Avenue, Park Square Building, Boston, MA 02116

Houghton Mifflin, 1 Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108

Instructor, Box 6177, Duluth, MN 55806

International Council for Computers in Education, University of Oregon, 1787 Ajate Street, Eugene, OR 97403

International Education, Inc. 341 Mount Auburn Street, Watertown, MA 02172

International Reading Association, 800 Barksdale Road, P.O. Box 8139, Newark, DE 19711

Iowa Library Association, 921 Insurance Exchange Building, Des Moines, IA 50309

J.W.B. Jewish Book Council, 15 East 26th Street, New York, NY 10010

Kirkus Service, 200 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10003

Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide, 425 Watertown Street, Newton, MA 02158

LMS Associates, 17 East Henrietta Street, Baltimore, MD 21230

Landmark Editions, 1420 Kansas Avenue, Kansas City, MO 64127

Library Learning Resources, 61 Greenbriar Drive, P.O. Box 87, Berkley Heights, NJ 07922

Library Professional Publications, 925 Sherman Avenue, Hamden, CT 06514

Libraries Unlimited, P.O. Box 263, Littleton, CO 80160-0263

Linworth Publishing Company, 2950 North High Street, P.O. Box 14466, Columbus, OH 43214

Los Angeles Public Library, Adult Services Department, 630 West Fifth Street, Los Angeles, CA 90071

Macmillan, 866 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10022

McFarland, P.O. Box 611, Jefferson, NC 28640

McGraw-Hill, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020

Missouri Library Association, Executive Office, Parkade Plaza, Suite 9, Columbia, MO 65203

Music Teachers National Association, 2113 Carerr Tower, Cincinnati, OH 45202

National Art Education Association 1916 Association Drive, Reston, VA 22091

National Association for the Perpetuation of Storytelling, P.O. Box 112, Jonesborough, TN 36759

National Association of State Educational Media Professionals, 2879 Exchange, McFarland, WI 53558

National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse, P.O. Box 94238, Chicago, IL 60690

National Council for the Social Studies, 3501 Newark Street, NW, Washington, DC 20016

National Council of Teachers of English, 1111 Kenyon Road, Urbana, IL 61801

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, 1906 Association Drive, Reston, VA 22091

National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Library of Congress, Washington, DC

National Science Teachers Association, 1742 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20009

Neal-Schuman Publishers, 23 Cornelia Street, New York, NY 10014

New American Library, 1633 Broadway, New York, NY 10019

New York Public Library, Office of Branch Libraries, 455 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10016

Oryx Press, 2214 North Central at Encanto, Phoenix, AZ 85004

Oxford University Press, 200 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10016

Penguin Books, 40 West 23rd Street, New York, NY 10010

Peterson's Guides, P.O. Box 2123, Princeton, NJ 08540

Pierian Press, P.O. Box 1808, Ann Arbor, MI 48106

Pitman Learning, Inc., 6 Davis Drive, Bellmont, CA 94002

Prakken Publishers, P.O. Box 8623, Ann Arbor, MI 48105

R.R. Bowker, 245 West 17th Street, New York, NY 10011

Renfro Studies, 1117 West 9th Street, Austin, TX 78703

Riverhouse Publications, 20 Waterside Plaza, New York, NY 10010

Scarecrow Press, 52 Liberty Street, P.O. Box 656, Metuchen, NJ 08840

Schocken, 62 Cooper Square, New York, NY 10003

School of Education, The American University, 4400 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20016

Scott, Foresman, 1900 East Lake Avenue, Glenview, IL 60025

Shoe String Press, 926 Sherman Avenue, Hamden, CT 06514

Sources, 26 Hart Avenue, Hopewell, NJ 08525

Scribners, 597 5th Avenue, New York, NY 10017

Superintendent of Documents, United States Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402

Totline Press, Gryphon House, P.O. Box 275, Mount Rainier, MD 20712

United States Government Printing Office, Department 39-LC, Washington, DC 20402

University of Alabama, VOYA, Box 2877, University, AL 25486

University of Chicago Press, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637

University of Southern California, Student Union 400, Los Angeles, CA 90007

University of Wisconsin Press, 114 North Murray Street, Madison, WI 53715

Westchester Library System, 8 Westchester Plaza, CWEP, Elmsford, NY 10523

Westminster, 925 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107